Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill makes several changes to the laws governing the operation of the Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation (WEDC), including the following:

Under current law, any power or duty assigned by law to WEDC is to be exercised by the board of WEDC (board), unless the board delegates the power or duty to a WEDC employee. The bill further authorizes the board to delegate any power or duty to a committee created by the board.

Also under current law, the governor appoints the chief executive officer of WEDC with the advice and consent of the senate, and the chief executive officer serves at the pleasure of the governor. Under the bill, the board, not the governor, is required to hire the chief executive officer of WEDC. The bill also requires the board to hire a chief operating officer and a chief financial officer for WEDC. Under the bill, the chief executive officer, chief operating officer, and chief financial officer all serve at the pleasure of the board. The bill requires the governor to treat the chief
