

DRAFTER'S NOTE FROM THE
LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRB-3056/1dn
PG:sac:jf

September 10, 2013

Adam:

I did not include in the draft an exemption from the common core standards for choice schools because current law does not require choice schools to adopt the common core standards. In fact, as you are probably aware, the budget act prohibits DPI from taking any further action to implement the common core standards with respect to public schools.

If you have questions or need more information, please let me know.
