STATUTORY TREATMENTS

Rule-making procedures

Current law sets forth a procedure for the promulgation of administrative rules (rules). Generally, that procedure consists of the following steps:

1. The agency planning to promulgate the rule prepares a statement of the scope of the proposed rule, which the governor and the agency head must approve before any state employee or official may perform any activity in connection with the drafting of the proposed rule.

2. The agency drafts the proposed rule, together with an economic impact analysis, plain language analysis, and fiscal estimate for the proposed rule, and submits those materials to the Legislative Council Staff for review.

3. Subject to certain exceptions, a public hearing is held on the proposed rule.

SENATE BILL 493

4. The final draft of the proposed rule is submitted to the governor for approval.

5. The final draft of the proposed rule, together with an economic impact analysis, plain language analysis, and fiscal estimate for the proposed rule, are submitted to the legislature for review by one standing committee in each house and by the Joint Committee for Review of Administrative Rules.

6. The proposed rule is filed with the Legislative Reference Bureau (LRB) for publication in the Wisconsin Administrative Code (code) and the Wisconsin Administrative Register (register), and, subject to certain exceptions, the rule becomes effective on the first day of the first month beginning after publication.

Under this bill, if a bill that repeals or modifies a rule is enacted, the ordinary rule-making procedures under current law do not apply. Instead, the LRB must publish the repeal or modification, in the code and the register, and the repeal or modification, subject to certain exceptions, takes effect on the first day of the first month beginning after publication.

TREATMENTS OF ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Under current law, the Department of Workforce Development (DWD) has promulgated various rules governing the administration in this state of the federal Job Training Partnership Act of 1982 (JTPA). Those rules govern: 1) allowable costs under the JTPA; 2) performance-based contracting by agencies receiving funds under the JTPA; 3) administration of the Dislocated Worker Program under the JTPA; and 4) administration of certain other employment and training programs under the JTPA. The JTPA was replaced by the federal Workforce Investment Act of 1998. This bill repeals those rules.

Under current law, DWD has promulgated rules governing the Wisconsin Job Opportunity Business Subsidy (WISJOBS) Program. Statutory authority for the awarding of grants under the WISJOBS Program expired on June 30, 1993. This bill repeals those rules.

Under current law, DWD has promulgated rules governing the filing and hearing of mining damage claims. Statutory responsibility for the hearing of such claims was transferred to the Department of Commerce in 1996 and, subsequently, to the Department of Safety and Professional Services in 2011. This bill repeals those rules.
