Relating to: Commemorating Bellin Hospital for being named the nation's safest hospital

Bellin Memorial Hospital was named the safest hospital in the nation in April of 2013 by Consumer Reports. Bellin received a score of 74 out of 100, ranking ahead of 2,031 hospitals nationwide. This score is an improvement from a report in August 2012 where it received a 72. Bellin has continued to keep pace with exciting technological advances and maintaining a reputation as an industry leader. Maintaining a high standard for safety and quality care has helped Bellin be a successful and effective hospital. Bellin has been providing quality healthcare to Northeast Wisconsin for over 100 years with a strong focus on patient experience and care. Continuing to move forward and improve upon the top-rated hospital with a passionate focus on the future.

Steve,

In the relating clause could I please possibly have it say Bellin Memorial Hospital instead of Bellin Hospital?

Thanks
