This amendment changes the criterion for approval of a mining permit from requiring DNR to find that the mining “is reasonably certain not to” result in substantial adverse impacts to public health, safety, or welfare to requiring DNR to find that the mining “will not” result in those impacts.<sup>v</sup> Note that current law requires DNR to find that the mine “will not endanger public health, safety or welfare.” See s. 293.49 (1)<sup>v</sup>(a) 4.
