Treatment of services performed by prison inmates

X Under current law, covered employment under the UI law generally does not include services by inmates of a custodial or penal institution for government units, Indian tribes, or nonprofit organizations. The bill provides that services performed for employers that are not government units, Indian tribes, or nonprofit organizations by inmates of state or federal prisons are also not covered employment under the UI law. As a consequence, wages paid by employers for those services are not subject to UI contribution requirements and those wages are not counted as base period wages for purposes of determining eligibility for UI benefits.

Regarding the item related to excluding employment by prison inmates, 4 please note that we also repealed s. 108.07 (8), stats., in conjunction with the 5 exclusion, because this provision would appear to no longer ever be applicable as a 6 result of the exclusion. If this provision should instead be retained or otherwise 7 modified, let us know. Also, we included this repeal within the initial applicability 8 provision for the exclusion of prison inmates. Please let us know if the repeal of s.
9 108.07 (8), stats., should instead have its own initial applicability provision.
