- 9 253.10 (3) (f) Medical emergency; fetal condition. If a medical emergency or
- 10 fetal condition exists, the physician who is to perform or induce the abortion
- 11 necessitated by the medical emergency or fetal condition shall inform the woman,
- 12 prior to the abortion if possible, of the medical indications supporting the physician’s
- 13 reasonable medical judgment that an immediate abortion is necessary to avert her

1 death or that a 24-hour delay in performance or inducement of an abortion will 2 create a serious risk of substantial and irreversible impairment of one or more of the 3 woman’s major bodily functions or is necessary to remove the fetus with the fetal 4 condition. If possible, the physician shall obtain the woman’s written consent prior 5 to the abortion. The physician shall certify these medical indications in writing and 6 place the certification in the woman’s medical record.”.

7 4. Page 9, line 14: after “emergency” insert “or due to a fetal condition”.
