2 and to create 321.10 (1) (cm) of the statutes; relating to: authorization for an
3 additional deputy adjutant general in the department of military affairs.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill creates a third deputy adjutant general in the department of military affairs to be funded from federal money. The new deputy may serve as the joint chief of staff. The current separate position of joint chief of staff is repealed. The new deputy will coordinate the department's response to disasters and other domestic requests for assistance from the civil authorities.
