Hi Pam and Lis,

Thank you for the bill draft. I just have a few little requests.

ok as is
For the note after Sec. 38, I think it's Secs. 2 to 38 that are covered by the note.

✓ For the note to Sec. 40, could you rewrite the first sentence as, "Repeals the reference to armed robbery....The reference is redundant..."? (I hope that makes sense!)

ok as is
For the note after Sec. 42, it just covers Secs. 41 and 42.

✓ For the notes on Secs. 50 and 51, the stars can be deleted.

✓ Also, for the FE question—because foster parent training is required under s. 48.67(4), Stats., I don't think there's any fiscal effect.

Thanks! Let me know if you need anything from me. Unless you have questions, please draft the /1.

Hi Anne,

Sections 33, 34, 35, and 36 relate to when law enforcement records (33 and 34) and juvenile court records (35 and 36) may be released to certain people, and do not relate to notices that must be given to and rights that may be exercised by the unborn child's guardian ad litem in proceedings in which an unborn child is alleged to be in need of protection or services. So I think the notes after Section 38 and Section 42 are correct as is.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill makes the following changes to the laws related to children:

1. Under current law, a court may order child support, legal custody, and periods of physical placement on the basis of a statement acknowledging paternity that is signed by both parents and filed with the state registrar. Since January 1, 2007, a minor has been prohibited from signing a statement acknowledging paternity. Current law, however, still contains references to minors signing statements acknowledging paternity, such as requiring a court to appoint a guardian ad litem for a minor party who signed a statement acknowledging paternity in an action based on the statement and authorizing the state registrar to insert the father's name on a child's birth certificate on the basis of a statement acknowledging paternity that is signed by a minor parent as long as the minor parent's parent or legal guardian signs, too. The bill harmonizes the prohibition against a minor parent signing a statement acknowledging paternity with 1) the statutes related to requirements for when the state registrar may change facts on birth certificates, 2) the statute related to requirements for rescinding a statement acknowledging paternity that has been filed with the state registrar, and 3) the statute that requires the court to appoint a guardian ad litem for a minor who signs a statement acknowledging paternity.

2. Under current law, a personal representative for a deceased respondent in a paternity action may appear for the respondent whenever an appearance is required. If the deceased respondent does not have a personal representative, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem, and the guardian ad litem may appear for the deceased respondent. Current law requires that the summons and petition in the paternity action be served on both the personal representative and the guardian ad litem of a deceased respondent. The bill changes the "and" to an "or." Since the court appoints a guardian ad litem only if there is no personal representative, a deceased respondent in a paternity action would not have both a personal representative and a guardian ad litem. The bill also corrects an incorrect cross-reference to the provision relating to service of the summons and petition.

3. Under current law, the form for a summons in a paternity action provides notice that interfering with the custody of a child, which is a Class I felony, is punishable by imprisonment for up to five years. A Class I felony actually is punishable under current law by imprisonment for up to three years and six months. The bill corrects the maximum length of time for imprisonment for interfering with the custody of a child that is stated in the form for a paternity action summons.

4. Under current law, if a person who has been ordered by a court to pay child support (obligor) is delinquent in the payments, the amount of the delinquency becomes a lien in favor of the Department of Children and Families (DCF). To enforce the lien, DCF may levy against one or more accounts that the obligor has at a financial institution by sending a notice of levy to the financial institution instructing the financial institution to prohibit the closing of or withdrawals from the account, up to the amount that is sufficient to pay the amount of the delinquency plus any financial institution and levying fees. If the obligor requests a hearing and at the hearing the court orders an alternative payment arrangement or determines that the obligor does not owe the support, or owes less than the amount claimed by DCF, the court must, under current law, order DCF to return the seized funds or the excess of the seized funds over the delinquent amount. Since DCF does not actually seize the funds, the bill requires the court to order DCF to instruct the financial institution to release the account, or funds in the account that exceed the delinquent amount, to the obligor.

5. Under current law, except in Milwaukee County, DCF is required to contract with a county department, the Milwaukee County enrollment services unit (services unit), a Wisconsin Works (W-2) agency, a child care resource and referral agency, or another agency to determine the eligibility of individuals for child care subsidies under Wisconsin Shares in a particular geographic region or for a particular Indian tribal unit, and in Milwaukee County DCF may contract with the services unit to determine eligibility. Under former law, W-2 agencies determined eligibility.

The statutes currently provide that an individual may be eligible for Wisconsin Shares if the W-2 agency determines that basic education or a course of study at a technical college would facilitate the individual's efforts to maintain employment and the individual needs child care services to participate in basic education or the course of study. The bill changes this so that the entity that makes this determination is DCF or the entity with which DCF contracts to determine eligibility, which may be other than a W-2 agency.

6. Under current law, the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under the Children's Code (juvenile court) has exclusive original jurisdiction over an unborn child who is alleged to be in need of protection or services on the grounds that the unborn child's expectant mother habitually lacks self-control in the use of alcohol beverages, controlled substances, or controlled substance analogs, exhibited to a severe degree, to the extent that there is a substantial risk that the physical health of the unborn child will be seriously affected or endangered unless the expectant mother receives prompt and adequate treatment for that habitual lack of self-control (commonly referred to as a "UCHIPS proceeding"). In a UCHIPS proceeding, the unborn child, by or through the unborn child's guardian ad litem, is entitled to receive notice of all hearings involving the unborn child, including hearings involving the temporary physical custody and changes in placement of the expectant mother and revisions to or extensions of the dispositional order. The unborn child, by or through the unborn child's guardian ad litem, is also entitled to exercise certain rights as a party to the proceeding, such as the right to request a substitution of judge, to inspect records relevant to the proceeding, and to demand a public fact-finding hearing or a jury trial. In addition, an unborn child, by or through the unborn child's guardian ad litem, may request or authorize the disclosure of law enforcement, juvenile court, or social services records relating to the expectant mother of the unborn child.

The bill eliminates the provision of those notices to, and the exercise of those rights by, an unborn child, by or through the unborn child's guardian ad litem. Instead, the bill requires those notices to be provided to, and permits those rights to be exercised by, the unborn child's guardian ad litem.

7. Under current law, if a county department of human services or social services (county department), DCF in a county having a population of 500,000 or more, or a licensed child welfare agency under contract with a county department or DCF to perform child abuse and neglect investigations (collectively "agency"), after evaluating a report of suspected or threatened child abuse or neglect, cannot determine who abused or neglected the child, the agency must initiate a diligent investigation to determine if the child is in need of protection or services. The bill instead requires an agency to initiate such an investigation if the agency cannot identify an individual who is suspected of abuse or neglect or of threatened abuse or neglect of the child.

8. Current law requires DCF to promulgate rules establishing minimum requirements for the issuance of foster home licenses, including rules requiring all foster parents to successfully complete training in the care and support needs of children who have been placed in foster care. That training must be completed before the first child is placed with the foster parent and on an ongoing basis. Current law also requires DCF to develop a voluntary foster care education program to provide specialized training for foster parents who provide care for children with special treatment needs. The bill eliminates that voluntary foster care education program.

9. Current law prohibits a person who has been convicted or adjudicated delinquent on or after his or her 12th birthday for committing a serious crime, as defined under current law, from 1) being licensed to operate a child care center; 2) being certified as a child care provider for purposes of reimbursement under Wisconsin Shares; or 3) contracting with a school board to provide a child care program (collectively, child care provider). Current law similarly prohibits such a person from being an employee or contractor of a child care provider (caregiver) or from being permitted to reside at a premises where child care is provided (nonclient resident). There is an exception to these prohibitions if the person, caregiver, or nonclient resident shows that he or she has been rehabilitated, except that current law bars a person who has committed certain violent crimes, including armed robbery, from showing that he or she has been rehabilitated for purposes of being a child care provider, a caregiver, or a nonclient resident and bars a person who has committed certain property crimes, including armed robbery, from showing that he or she has been rehabilitated for purposes of being a child care provider, but not for purposes of being a caregiver or a nonclient resident.

The bill eliminates armed robbery as a property crime for which a person is barred from showing that he or she has been rehabilitated for purposes of being a child care provider, but not for purposes of being a caregiver or a nonclient resident. The bill, however, retains armed robbery as a violent crime for which a person is barred from showing that he or she has been rehabilitated for purposes of being a child care provider, a caregiver, or a nonclient resident.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. 20.437 (2) (r) of the statutes is amended to read:

2 20.437 (2) (r) Support receipt and disbursement program; payments. From the 3 support collections trust fund, except as provided in par. (qm), all moneys received 4 under s. 49.854, except for moneys received under s. 49.854 (11) (b), all moneys 5 received under ss. 767.57 and 767.75 for child or family support, maintenance, 6 spousal support, health care expenses, or birth expenses, all other moneys received 7 under judgments or orders in actions affecting the family, as defined in s. 767.001 (1), 8 and all moneys received under s. 49.855 (4) from the department of revenue or the 9 department of administration that were withheld by the department of revenue or 10 the internal revenue service for delinquent child support, family support, or 11 maintenance or outstanding court-ordered amounts for past support, medical 12 expenses, or birth expenses, for disbursement to the persons for whom the payments 13 are awarded, ~~for returning seized funds under s. 49.854 (5) (f), and, if assigned under~~

SECTION 1

1 disbursements under this paragraph shall not be included in the schedule under s.
2 20.005.

NOTE: Removes as a purpose of the support collections trust fund returning funds seized from a financial institution. This reflects that a financial institution freezes accounts at the request of the Department of Children and Families upon notice of levy but the department does not seize the funds until an opportunity for a hearing is afforded.

3 ad litem, if applicable, and any person specified in par. (b), (d), or (e), if applicable, 4 of all hearings involving the child except hearings on motions for which notice must 5 be provided only to the child and his or her counsel and, if applicable, to the unborn 6 child's guardian ad litem. If parents who are entitled to notice have the same place 7 of residence, notice to one constitutes notice to the other. The first notice to any 8 interested party, foster parent, or other physical custodian described in s. 48.62 (2) 9 shall be in writing and may have a copy of the petition attached to it. Notices of 10 subsequent hearings may be given by telephone at least 72 hours before the time of 13 SECTION 11. 48.27 (3) (c) of the statutes is amended to read:

14 48.27 (3) (c) If the petition that was filed relates to facts concerning a situation

19 and expectant mother except hearings on motions for which notice need only be 20 provided to the expectant mother and her counsel and ~~the unborn child~~ through the 21 unborn child's guardian ad litem. The first notice to any interested party shall be 22 written and may have a copy of the petition attached to it. Thereafter, notice of 23 hearings may be given by telephone at least 72 hours before the time of the hearing.
24 The person giving telephone notice shall place in the case file a signed statement of 25 the time notice was given and the person to whom he or she spoke.

1 SECTION 12. 48.29 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

2 48.29 (1) The child, the child's parent, guardian or legal custodian, the 3 expectant mother, or ~~the unborn child~~ by the unborn child's guardian ad litem, either 4 before or during the plea hearing, may file a written request with the clerk of the 5 court or other person acting as the clerk for a substitution of the judge assigned to 6 the proceeding. Upon filing the written request, the filing party shall immediately 7 mail or deliver a copy of the request to the judge named in the request. When any 8 person has the right to request a substitution of judge, that person's counsel or 9 guardian ad litem may file the request. Not more than one such written request may 10 be filed in any one proceeding, nor may any single request name more than one judge.
11 This section does not apply to proceedings under s. 48.21 or 48.213.

12 SECTION 13. 48.293 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

13 48.293 (2) All records relating to a child, or to an unborn child and the unborn 14 child's expectant mother, ~~which~~ that are relevant to the subject matter of a 15 proceeding under this chapter shall be open to inspection by a guardian ad litem or 16 counsel for any party and to inspection by the court-appointed special advocate for 17 the child, upon demand and upon presentation of releases when necessary, at least 18 48 hours before the proceeding. ~~Persons and unborn children, by their guardians ad~~ 19 ~~litem,~~ entitled to inspect the records may obtain copies of the records with the 20 permission of the custodian of the records or with permission of the court. The court 21 may instruct counsel, a guardian ad litem, or a court-appointed special advocate not 22 to disclose specified items in the materials to the child or the parent, or to the 23 expectant mother, if the court reasonably believes that the disclosure would be 24 harmful to the interests of the child or the unborn child.

25 SECTION 14. 48.293 (3) of the statutes is amended to read:

1 48.293 (3) Upon request prior to the fact-finding hearing, counsel for the 2 interests of the public shall disclose to the child, through his or her counsel or 3 guardian ad litem, or to ~~the unborn child, through~~ the unborn child's guardian ad 4 litem, the existence of any audiovisual recording of an oral statement of a child under 5 s. 908.08 ~~which~~ that is within the possession, custody, or control of the state and shall 6 make reasonable arrangements for the requesting person to view the statement. If, 7 after compliance with this subsection, the state obtains possession, custody, or 8 control of such a statement, counsel for the interests of the public shall promptly 9 notify the requesting person of that fact and make reasonable arrangements for the 10 requesting person to view the statement.

11 SECTION 15. 48.297 (6) of the statutes is amended to read:

12 48.297 (6) A motion required to be served on a child may be served on his or 13 her attorney of record. ~~A motion required to be served on an unborn child may be~~ 14 ~~served on the unborn child's guardian ad litem.~~

15 SECTION 16. 48.299 (1) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

16 48.299 (1) (a) The general public shall be excluded from hearings under this 17 chapter and from hearings by courts exercising jurisdiction under s. 48.16 unless a 18 public fact-finding hearing is demanded by a child through his or her counsel, by an 19 expectant mother through her counsel, or by an ~~unborn child through~~ the unborn 20 child's guardian ad litem. However, the court shall refuse to grant the public hearing 21 in a proceeding other than a proceeding under s. 48.375 (7), if a parent, guardian, 22 expectant mother, or ~~unborn child through~~ the unborn child's guardian ad litem 23 objects.

24 SECTION 17. 48.30 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

1 48.30 (2) At the commencement of the hearing under this section the child and 2 the parent, guardian, legal custodian, or Indian custodian; the child expectant 3 mother, her parent, guardian, legal custodian, or Indian custodian, and ~~the unborn~~ 4 ~~child through~~ the unborn child's guardian ad litem; or the adult expectant mother

4 unborn child to be in need of protection or services under s. 48.13 or 48.133, that the 5 child or unborn child is not in need of protection or services that can be ordered by 12 ~~child by the~~ unborn child's guardian ad litem objects to the extension, the judge shall 13 schedule a hearing and make a determination on the issue of extension. An 14 extension under this paragraph of a consent decree relating to an unborn child who 15 is alleged to be in need of protection or services may be granted after the child is born.

19 request a change in placement under this paragraph. The request shall contain the 20 name and address of the new placement requested and shall state what new 21 information is available that affects the advisability of the current placement. If the 22 proposed change in placement would change the placement of a child placed in the 23 child's home to a placement outside the child's home, the request shall also contain 24 specific information showing that continued placement of the child in the home 25 would be contrary to the welfare of the child and, unless any of the circumstances

1 under s. 48.355 (2d) (b) 1. to 5. applies, specific information showing that the agency 2 primarily responsible for implementing the dispositional order has made reasonable 3 efforts to prevent the removal of the child from the home, while assuring that the 4 child's health and safety are the paramount concerns. The request shall be 21 expectant mother of an unborn child under s. 48.133, the court shall also notify ~~the~~ 22 ~~unborn child~~ by the unborn child's guardian ad litem. If the change in placement

9 may request a revision in the order that does not involve a change in placement or 10 a trial reunification, including a revision with respect to the amount of child support 11 to be paid by a parent. The court may also propose a revision. The request or court 12 proposal shall set forth in detail the nature of the proposed revision and what new 13 information is available that affects the advisability of the court's disposition. The 14 request or court proposal shall be submitted to the court. The court shall hold a 15 hearing on the matter prior to any revision of the dispositional order if the request 16 or court proposal indicates that new information is available ~~which~~ that affects the 17 advisability of the court's dispositional order, unless written waivers of objections to 18 the revision are signed by all parties entitled to receive notice and the court approves.

19 SECTION 30. 48.363 (1) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

20 48.363 (1) (b) If a hearing is held, at least 3 days before the hearing the court

7 the district attorney or corporation counsel in the county in which the dispositional 8 order was entered, at least 3 days prior to the hearing. A copy of the request or 9 proposal shall be attached to the notice. If all parties consent, the court may proceed 10 immediately with the hearing. No revision may extend the effective period of the 11 original order.

12 SECTION 31. 48.365 (1m) of the statutes is amended to read:

13 48.365 (1m) The parent, child, guardian, legal custodian, Indian custodian, 14 expectant mother, ~~unborn child~~ by the unborn child's guardian ad litem, any person

9 the parties present at the original hearing, and the district attorney or corporation 10 counsel in the county in which the dispositional order was entered, of the time and 11 place of the hearing.

12 SECTION 33. 48.396 (1b) of the statutes is amended to read:

13 48.396 (1b) If requested by the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of a child 14 who is the subject of a law enforcement officer's report, or if requested by the child, 15 if 14 years of age or over, a law enforcement agency may, subject to official agency 16 policy, provide to the parent, guardian, legal custodian, or child a copy of that report.
17 If requested by the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of a child expectant mother 18 of an unborn child who is the subject of a law enforcement officer's report, if requested 19 by an expectant mother of an unborn child who is the subject of a law enforcement 20 officer's report, if 14 years of age or over, or if requested by an ~~unborn child through~~ 21 ~~the unborn child's guardian ad litem,~~ a law enforcement agency may, subject to 22 official agency policy, provide to the parent, guardian, legal custodian, expectant 23 mother or ~~unborn child by the~~ unborn child's guardian ad litem a copy of that report.

24 SECTION 34. 48.396 (1d) of the statutes is amended to read:

1 48.396 (1d) Upon the written permission of the parent, guardian, or legal 2 custodian of a child who is the subject of a law enforcement officer's report or upon 3 the written permission of the child, if 14 years of age or over, a law enforcement 4 agency may, subject to official agency policy, make available to the person named in 5 the permission any reports specifically identified by the parent, guardian, legal 6 custodian or child in the written permission. Upon the written permission of the 7 parent, guardian, or legal custodian of a child expectant mother of an unborn child 8 who is the subject of a law enforcement officer's report, or of an expectant mother of

15 SECTION 35. 48.396 (2) (aj) of the statutes is amended to read:

16 48.396 (2) (aj) Upon request of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of a 17 child expectant mother of an unborn child who is the subject of a record of a court 18 specified in par. (a), upon request of an expectant mother of an unborn child who is 19 the subject of a record of a court specified in par. (a), if 14 years of age or over, or upon 20 request of an ~~unborn child~~ by the unborn child's guardian ad litem, the court shall 21 open for inspection by the parent, guardian, legal custodian, expectant mother, or 22 ~~unborn child~~ by the unborn child's guardian ad litem the records of the court relating 23 to that expectant mother, unless the court finds, after due notice and hearing, that 24 inspection of those records by the parent, guardian, legal custodian, expectant

1 mother, or ~~unborn child by the~~ unborn child's guardian ad litem would result in 2 imminent danger to anyone.

3 SECTION 36. 48.396 (2) (ap) of the statutes is amended to read:

4 48.396 (2) (ap) Upon the written permission of the parent, guardian, or legal 5 custodian of a child expectant mother of an unborn child who is the subject of a record 6 of a court specified in par. (a), or of an expectant mother of an unborn child who is 7 the subject of a record of a court specified in par. (a), if 14 years of age or over, and 8 ~~of the unborn child by the~~ unborn child's guardian ad litem, the court shall open for 9 inspection by the person named in the permission any records specifically identified 10 by the parent, guardian, legal custodian, or expectant mother, and ~~unborn child by~~ 11 ~~the~~ unborn child's guardian ad litem in the written permission, unless the court 12 finds, after due notice and hearing, that inspection of those records by the person 13 named in the permission would result in imminent danger to anyone.

14 SECTION 37. 48.396 (5) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

15 48.396 (5) (b) The court shall notify the child, the child's counsel, the child's 16 parents, appropriate law enforcement agencies, and, if the child is an expectant 17 mother of an unborn child under s. 48.133, ~~the unborn child by the~~ unborn child's 18 guardian ad litem, or shall notify the adult expectant mother, ~~the unborn child by the~~ 19 unborn child's guardian ad litem, and appropriate law enforcement agencies, in 20 writing of the petition. If any person notified objects to the disclosure, the court may 21 hold a hearing to take evidence relating to the petitioner's need for the disclosure.

22 SECTION 38. 48.46 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

23 48.46 (1) Except as provided in subs. (1m), (2), and (3), the child whose status 24 is adjudicated by the court, the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of that child, the 25 guardian ad litem of an unborn child whose status is adjudicated by the court, or the 1 expectant mother of that unborn child may at any time within one year after the 2 entering of the court's order petition the court for a rehearing on the ground that new 3 evidence has been discovered affecting the advisability of the court's original 4 adjudication. Upon a showing that such evidence does exist, the court shall order a 5 new hearing.

NOTE: SECTIONS 2 to 32, 37, and 38 modify provisions of the Children's Code relating to proceedings in which an unborn child is alleged to be in need of protection or services so that notices must be given to and rights must be exercised by the unborn child's guardian ad litem instead of by the unborn child through the unborn child's guardian ad litem.

6 SECTION 39. 48.675 of the statutes is repealed.

NOTE: Repeals a statute that requires the Department of Children and Families to develop a voluntary foster parent education program for foster parents who provide care for children with special treatment needs.

7 SECTION 40. 48.685 (5) (br) 3m. of the statutes is amended to read:

8 48.685 (5) (br) 3m. Except for purposes of permitting a person to be a nonclient 9 resident or caregiver specified in sub. (1) (ag) 1. a. of a child care center or child care 10 provider, a violation of s. 943.201, 943.203, ~~943.32 (2)~~, or 943.38 (1) or (2); a violation 11 of s. 943.34 (1), 943.395 (1), 943.41 (3) (e), (4) (a), (5), (6), or (6m), 943.45 (1), 943.455 12 (2), 943.46 (2), 943.47 (2), 943.50 (1m), or 943.70 (2) (a) or (am) or (3) (a) that is a 13 felony; or an offense under subch. IV of ch. 943 that is a felony.

NOTE: Removes the reference to armed robbery in violation of s. 943.32 (2), stats., from s. 48.685 (5) (br) 3m., stats.
The reference to armed robbery in violation of s. 943.32 (2), stats., in s. 48.685 (5) (br) 3m., stats., is redundant insofar as that crime is also referenced in s. 48.685 (5) (br) 3m., stats. A review of the drafting record for 2009 Wisconsin Act 76 indicates that a reference to s. 943.32 (2), stats., was already included in s. 48.685 (5) (br) 3m., stats., when s. 48.685 (5) (br) 3m., stats., was drafted and that, therefore, the inclusion of the reference to s. 943.32 (2), stats., in s. 48.685 (5) (br) 3m., stats., was done in error.

14 SECTION 41. 48.78 (2) (aj) of the statutes is amended to read:

15 48.78 (2) (aj) Paragraph (a) does not prohibit an agency from making available 16 for inspection or disclosing the contents of a record, upon the request of a parent, 17 guardian, or legal custodian of a child expectant mother of an unborn child who is

1 the subject of the record, upon the request of an expectant mother of an unborn child 2 who is the subject of the record, if 14 years of age or over, or upon the request of an 3 ~~unborn child by the~~ unborn child's guardian ad litem, to the parent, guardian, legal 4 custodian, expectant mother, or ~~unborn child by the~~ unborn child's guardian ad 5 litem, unless the agency determines that inspection of the record by the parent, 6 guardian, legal custodian, expectant mother, or ~~unborn child by the~~ unborn child's 7 guardian ad litem would result in imminent danger to anyone.

8 SECTION 42. 48.78 (2) (ap) of the statutes is amended to read:

9 48.78 (2) (ap) Paragraph (a) does not prohibit an agency from making available 10 for inspection or disclosing the contents of a record, upon the written permission of 11 the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of a child expectant mother of an unborn 12 child who is the subject of the record, or of an expectant mother of an unborn child 13 who is the subject of the record, if 14 years of age or over, and of ~~the unborn child by~~ 14 ~~the~~ unborn child's guardian ad litem, to the person named in the permission if the 15 parent, guardian, legal custodian, or expectant mother, and ~~unborn child by the~~ 16 unborn child's guardian ad litem, specifically identify the record in the written 17 permission, unless the agency determines that inspection of the record by the person 18 named in the permission would result in imminent danger to anyone.

NOTE: SECTIONS 33 to 36, 41, and 42 provide that law enforcement, juvenile court, and agency records governed by the Children's Code may be released to certain persons upon the request or with the permission of an unborn child's guardian ad litem instead of upon the request or with the permission of the unborn child by the unborn child's guardian ad litem.

19 SECTION 43. 48.981 (3) (c) 1. a. of the statutes is amended to read:

20 48.981 (3) (c) 1. a. Immediately after receiving a report under par. (a), the 21 agency shall evaluate the report to determine whether there is reason to suspect that 22 a caregiver has abused or neglected the child, has threatened the child with abuse

1 or neglect, or has facilitated or failed to take action to prevent the suspected or 2 threatened abuse or neglect of the child. Except as provided in sub. (3m), if the 3 agency determines that a caregiver is suspected of abuse or neglect or of threatened 4 abuse or neglect of the child, determines that a caregiver is suspected of facilitating 5 or failing to take action to prevent the suspected or threatened abuse or neglect of 6 the child, or cannot ~~determine who abused or neglected the child~~ identify an 7 individual who is suspected of abuse or neglect or of threatened abuse or neglect of 8 the child, within 24 hours after receiving the report the agency shall, in accordance 9 with the authority granted to the department under s. 48.48 (17) (a) 1. or the county 10 department under s. 48.57 (1) (a), initiate a diligent investigation to determine if the 11 child is in need of protection or services. If the agency determines that a person who 12 is not a caregiver is suspected of abuse or of threatened abuse, the agency may, in 13 accordance with that authority, initiate a diligent investigation to determine if the 14 child is in need or protection or services. Within 24 hours after receiving a report 15 under par. (a) of suspected unborn child abuse, the agency, in accordance with that 16 authority, shall initiate a diligent investigation to determine if the unborn child is 17 in need of protection or services. An investigation under this subd. 1. a. shall be 18 conducted in accordance with standards established by the department for 19 conducting child abuse and neglect investigations or unborn child abuse 20 investigations.

NOTE: Under current law, if an agency that investigates a report of alleged child abuse or neglect cannot determine who abused or neglected the child, the agency must initiate a diligent investigation to determine if the child is in need of protection or services within 24 hours after receiving the report. This SECTION instead requires an investigation to be initiated within 24 hours after receiving such a report if the agency cannot identify an individual who is suspected of abuse or neglect or of threatened abuse or neglect of the child.

21 SECTION 44. 49.155 (1m) (a) 4. of the statutes is amended to read:

1 49.155 (1m) (a) 4. ~~If the Wisconsin works agency determines that basic~~ 2 ~~education would facilitate the individual's efforts to maintain employment,~~ 3 ~~participate~~ Participate in basic education, including an English as a 2nd language 4 course; literacy tutoring; or a course of study meeting the standards established by 5 the state superintendent of public instruction under s. 115.29 (4) for the granting of 6 a declaration of equivalency of high school graduation, if the department or the 7 county department or agency determining eligibility determines that basic 8 education would facilitate the individual's efforts to maintain employment. An 9 individual may receive aid under this subdivision for up to 2 years.

10 SECTION 45. 49.155 (1m) (a) 5. of the statutes is amended to read:

11 49.155 (1m) (a) 5. Participate in a course of study at a technical college, or 12 participate in educational courses that provide an employment skill, as determined 13 by the department, ~~if the Wisconsin works~~ department or the county department or 14 agency determining eligibility determines that the course or courses would facilitate 15 the individual's efforts to maintain employment. An individual may receive aid 16 under this subdivision for up to 2 years.

NOTE: Provides that the Department of Children and Families or a county department or agency may determine for purposes of eligibility for a Wisconsin Shares child care subsidy that certain educational activities would facilitate the individual's efforts to maintain employment. This change reflects that, under current law, the department or a county department or agency with which the department contracts determines eligibility for the Wisconsin Shares child care subsidy program.

17 SECTION 46. 49.854 (5) (f) of the statutes is amended to read:

18 49.854 (5) (f) Hearings. A hearing requested under par. (d) 6. shall be 19 conducted before the circuit court rendering the order to pay support. Within 45 20 business days after receiving a request for hearing under par. (d) 6., the court shall 21 conduct the hearing. A circuit court commissioner may conduct the hearing. The 22 hearing shall be limited to a review of whether the account holder owes the amount

1 of support certified and whether any alternative payment arrangement offered by 2 the department or the county child support agency is reasonable. If the court or 3 circuit court commissioner makes a written determination that an alternative 4 payment arrangement offered by the department or county child support agency is 5 not reasonable, the court or circuit court commissioner may order an alternative 6 payment arrangement. If the court or circuit court commissioner orders an 7 alternative payment arrangement, the court or circuit court commissioner shall 8 order the department to instruct the financial institution to release all or a portion 9 of the funds. If the court or circuit court commissioner determines that the account 10 holder does not owe support or owes less than the amount claimed by the 11 department, the court shall order the department to ~~return the seized funds~~ instruct 12 the financial institution to release the funds in the account or the excess of ~~the seized~~ 13 those funds over the amount of the delinquency to the account holder. If a circuit 14 court commissioner conducts the hearing under this paragraph, the department or 15 the obligor may, within 15 business days after the date that the circuit court 16 commissioner makes his or her decision, request review of the decision by the court 17 with jurisdiction over the action.

NOTE: In a hearing relating to a levy against a delinquent obligor's financial account, provides that the court may order the department to instruct the financial institution to release all or a portion of the funds, instead of ordering the department to release the funds.

18 SECTION 47. 69.15 (3) (b) 3. of the statutes is amended to read:

19 69.15 (3) (b) 3. Except as provided under par. (c), if the state registrar receives 20 a statement acknowledging paternity on a form prescribed by the state registrar and 21 signed by both parents, ~~and by a parent or legal guardian of any parent who is~~ neither 22 of whom was under the age of 18 years when the form was signed, along with the fee 23 under s. 69.22, the state registrar shall insert the name of the father under subd. 1.

1 The state registrar shall mark the certificate to show that the form is on file. The 2 form shall be available to the department of children and families or a county child 3 support agency under s. 59.53 (5) pursuant to the program responsibilities under s.
4 49.22 or to any other person with a direct and tangible interest in the record. The 5 state registrar shall include on the form for the acknowledgment the information in 6 s. 767.805 and the items in s. 767.813 (5g).

NOTE: Modifies the statute relating to inserting the name of a father on a birth certificate pursuant to an acknowledgment of paternity so that it is consistent with current law, under which a minor father may not sign an acknowledgment of paternity.

7 SECTION 48. 69.15 (3m) (a) 3. of the statutes is amended to read:

8 69.15 (3m) (a) 3. ~~Except as provided in subd. 4., the~~ The person rescinding the 9 statement files the document under subd. 2. before the day on which a court or circuit 10 court commissioner makes an order in an action affecting the family involving the 11 man who signed the statement and the child who is the subject of the statement or 12 before 60 days elapse after the statement was filed, whichever occurs first.

13 SECTION 49. 69.15 (3m) (a) 4. of the statutes is repealed.

14 SECTION 50. 69.15 (3m) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

15 69.15 (3m) (b) If the state registrar, within the time required under par. (a) 3.
16 ~~or 4., whichever is appropriate,~~ receives a document prescribed by the state registrar 17 for rescinding a statement acknowledging paternity under sub. (3) (b) 3., along with 18 the proper fee under s. 69.22, the state registrar shall prepare under sub. (6) a new 19 certificate omitting the father's name if it was inserted under sub. (3) (b).

*note: lac
std*

NOTE: SECTIONS 48 and 50 modify the statute relating to rescinding a statement acknowledging paternity so that it is consistent with current law, under which a minor father may not sign a statement acknowledging paternity.

20 SECTION 51. 767.805 (3) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

1 767.805 (3) (b) Except as provided in s. 767.407, in an action specified in par.
 2 (a) the court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the child ~~and shall appoint a~~ 3 ~~guardian ad litem for a party who is a minor, unless the minor party is represented~~ 4 ~~by an attorney.~~

*note: lrc

NOTE: Removes a reference to appointing a guardian ad litem for a minor party in an action to establish child custody and placement for a father who has acknowledged paternity because a minor may not acknowledge paternity under current law.

5 SECTION 52. 767.813 (5) (a) 4. of the statutes is amended to read:

6 767.813 (5) (a) 4. You are also notified that interference with the custody of a 7 child is punishable by a fine of up to $10,000 and imprisonment for up to ~~5~~ 3 years 8 and 6 months. Section 948.31, stats.

NOTE: Changes the form for a summons in a paternity action to correctly reflect that interfering with the custody of a child may be punished by imprisonment not to exceed 3 years and 6 months instead of 5 years.

9 SECTION 53. 767.865 (1) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

10 767.865 (1) (a) The personal representative or, if there is no personal 11 representative, a guardian ad litem appointed in accordance with par. (b) may 12 appear for a deceased respondent whenever an appearance by the respondent is 13 required. The summons and petition shall be served on the deceased respondent's 14 personal representative of and or guardian ad litem for the deceased respondent, as 15 the case may be, under s. 767.813 ~~(3)~~ (4).

NOTE: Provides that in a paternity action in which the respondent is deceased, either the personal representative or the guardian ad litem for the deceased respondent must be served with the summons and petition. Under current law, a personal representative or a guardian ad litem may appear for a deceased respondent; however, current law requires both to be served with the summons or petition. Also corrects a cross-reference.
