13 individualized education programs, providing an exemption from emergency 14 rule procedures, providing an exemption from rule-making procedures, and 15 granting rule-making authority.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, an order of the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under the Children's Code and the Juvenile Justice Code (juvenile court) that places or continues the placement of a child in out-of-home care terminates when the child reaches 18 years of age, one year after entry of the order, or, if the child is a full-time student at a secondary school or its vocational or technical equivalent and is reasonably expected to complete the program before reaching 19 years of age, when the child reaches 19 years of age, whichever is later, unless the juvenile court specified a shorter period of time or terminates the order sooner.

This bill permits a child placed in out-of-home care who is a full-time student at a secondary school or its vocational or technical equivalent and for whom an individualized education program (IEP) is in effect (child with an IEP) to continue in out-of-home care until the child is granted a high school or high school equivalency diploma or reaches 21 years of age, whichever occurs first, under either an extended dispositional order of the juvenile court or a voluntary transition-to-independent-living agreement between the child, or the child's guardian on behalf of the child, and the agency primarily responsible for providing services to the child under the dispositional order (agency). (An IEP is a written statement for a child with a disability developed by an IEP team appointed by the child's local educational agency that includes, among other things, the child's level of academic achievement and functional performance, measurable goals for the child, the special education and related services to be provided to the child, and how the child's progress toward attaining those goals will be measured.)

Specifically, the bill requires an agency, not less than 120 days before the termination date of a dispositional order of a child with an IEP who has attained 18 years of age or the termination date of a termination of parental rights order transferring a child with an IEP to the guardianship of an agency (TPR agency guardianship order), to request the child to indicate whether he or she wishes to be discharged from out-of-home care on termination of the dispositional or TPR agency guardianship order, wishes to continue in out-of-home care under an extension of the dispositional order, or wishes to continue in out-of-home care under a voluntary transition-to-independent-living agreement.

If the child with an IEP indicates that he or she wishes to be discharged from out-of-home care on termination of the dispositional or TPR agency guardianship order, the agency must request the juvenile court to hold a transition-to-discharge hearing, and the juvenile court must hold the hearing within 30 days after receipt of the request. At the hearing the juvenile court must review with the child the options of being discharged from out-of-home care on termination of the dispositional or TPR agency guardianship order, continuing in out-of-home care under an extension of the dispositional order, or continuing in out-of-home care under a voluntary agreement.

If the juvenile court determines that the child with an IEP understands that he or she may continue in out-of-home care, but wishes to be discharged from that care on termination of the dispositional or TPR agency guardianship order, the juvenile court must advise the child that he or she may enter into a voluntary transition-to-independent-living agreement at any time before he or she is granted a high school or high school equivalency diploma or reaches 21 years of age, whichever occurs first, so long as he or she is a full-time student at a secondary school or its vocational or technical equivalent and the IEP remains in effect. If the juvenile court determines that the child with an IEP wishes to continue in out-of-home care under a dispositional order, the juvenile court must schedule a hearing for the extension of the dispositional order. If the juvenile court determines that the child with an IEP wishes to continue in out-of-home care under a voluntary transition-to-independent-living agreement, the juvenile court must order the agency to provide transition-to-independent-living services for the child under such an agreement.

The bill permits a child with an IEP, or the child's guardian on behalf of the child, on termination of a dispositional or TPR agency guardianship order, to enter into a transition-to-independent-living agreement with the agency under which the child continues in out-of-home care and continues to be a full-time student at a secondary school or its vocational or technical equivalent under the IEP until the child reaches 21 years of age, is granted a high school or high school equivalency diploma, or terminates the agreement, whichever occurs first, and the agency provides services to the child to assist him or her in transitioning to independent living. The bill also permits a child or his or her guardian to terminate the agreement at any time by notifying the agency in writing that the child wishes to terminate the agreement. In addition, the bill permits a child who terminates a voluntary transition-to-independent-living agreement to enter into a new agreement at any time before he or she is granted a high school or high school equivalency diploma or reaches 21 years of age, whichever occurs first, so long as he or she is a full-time student at a secondary school or its vocational or technical equivalent and the IEP remains in effect.

16 change in placement does not involve a change in placement of a child placed in the 17 child's home to a placement outside the child's home, written waivers of objection to 18 the proposed change in placement are signed by all persons entitled to receive notice
19 under this paragraph, other than a court-appointed special advocate, and the court

22 foster parent or other physical custodian described in s. 48.62 (2) of the child, the 23 child's court-appointed special advocate, all parties who are bound by the 24 dispositional order, and, if the child is an Indian child, the Indian child's Indian 25 custodian and tribe. If the child is the expectant mother of an unborn child under

SENATE BILL 451

1 s. 48.133, the court shall also notify the unborn child by the unborn child's guardian
2 ad litem. If the change in placement involves an adult expectant mother of an unborn 3 child under s. 48.133, the court shall notify the adult expectant mother, the unborn 4 child by the unborn child's guardian ad litem, and all parties who are bound by the 5 dispositional order, at least 3 days prior to the hearing. A copy of the request or 6 proposal for the change in placement shall be attached to the notice. Subject to par.
7 (br), if all of the parties consent, the court may proceed immediately with the hearing.

8 SECTION 12. 48.357 (2m) (bv) of the statutes is created to read:

12 of the child or a person or agency primarily bound by the dispositional order may 13 request a change in placement under par. (a). No hearing is required for a change 14 in placement described in this paragraph if written waivers of objection to the 15 proposed change in placement are signed by the child, the guardian of the child, and 16 all parties that are bound by the dispositional order. If a hearing is scheduled, the 17 court may proceed immediately with the hearing on the consent of the person who 18 requested the change in placement, the child, the guardian of the child, and all 19 parties who are bound by the dispositional order.

20 SECTION 13. 48.357 (2v) (a) 3. of the statutes is amended to read:

21 48.357 (2v) (a) 3. If the court finds that any of the circumstances specified in 22 s. 48.355 (2d) (b) 1. to 5. applies with respect to a parent, a determination that the 23 agency primarily responsible for providing services under the change in placement 24 order is not required to make reasonable efforts with respect to the parent to make 25 it possible for the child to return safely to his or her home. This subdivision does not

SENATE BILL 451

1 apply to a child who is subject to a dispositional order that terminates as provided 2 in s. 48.355 (4) (b) 4., 48.357 (6) (a) 4., or 48.365 (5) (b) 4.

3 SECTION 14. 48.357 (6) of the statutes is renumbered 48.357 (6) (a) (intro.) and 4 amended to read:

6 of the original order, except that if the change in placement is from a placement in 7 the child's home to a placement outside the home the court may extend the expiration 8 date of the original order to the latest of the following dates, unless the court specifies
9 a shorter period:

10 1. The date on which the child reaches 18 years of age, to the 11 2. The date that is one year after the date of on which the change in placement 12 order, or, if is entered.

13 3. The date on which the child is granted a high school or high school

15 whichever occurs first, if the child is a full-time student at a secondary school or its 16 vocational or technical equivalent and is reasonably expected to complete the 17 program before reaching 19 years of age, to the date on which the child reaches 19 18 years of age, whichever is later, or for a shorter period of time as specified by the 19 court.

20 (b) If the change in placement is from a placement outside the home to a 21 placement in the child's home and if the expiration date of the original order is more 22 than one year after the date of on which the change in placement order is entered, 23 the court shall shorten the expiration date of the original order to the date that is one 24 year after the date of on which the change in placement order is entered or to an 25 earlier date as specified by the court.

SENATE BILL 451

1 SECTION 15. 48.357 (6) (a) 4. of the statutes is created to read:

2 48.357 (6) (a) 4. The date on which the child is granted a high school or high

5 vocational or technical equivalent and if an individualized education program under 6 s. 115.787 is in effect for the child. The court may not enter an order that terminates 7 as provided in this subdivision unless the child is 17 years of age or older when the 8 order is entered and the child, or the child's guardian on behalf of the child, agrees 9 to the order. At any time after the child reaches 18 years of age, the child, or the 10 child's guardian on behalf of the child, may request the court in writing to terminate
