

2013 SENATE BILL 504

January 21, 2014 – Introduced by Senator LAZICH, cosponsored by Representatives STRACHOTA, KOOYENGA, TAUCHEN and THIESFELDT. Referred to Committee on Judiciary and Labor.

1 AN ACT to renumber and amend 48.23 (2); to amend 48.23 (2) (title); and to
2 create 48.23 (2) (b) 2., 48.23 (2) (b) 3. and 48.23 (2) (c) of the statutes; relating
3 to: waiver of a parent’s right to counsel in a contested adoption or an
4 involuntary termination of parental rights proceeding for failure to personally
5 appear as ordered by the juvenile court.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, in a proceeding involving a contested adoption or an involuntary termination of parental rights (TPR), a parent who appears before the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under the Children’s Code (juvenile court) must be represented by counsel, except that a parent 18 years of age or over may waive counsel if the juvenile court is satisfied that the waiver is knowingly and voluntarily made. Current law, however, does not permit a parent under 18 years of age to waive counsel in a contested adoption or involuntary TPR proceeding.

This bill provides that a parent of any age who has appeared before the juvenile court in a contested adoption or involuntary TPR proceeding is presumed to have waived his or her right to counsel and to appear by counsel in the proceeding if the juvenile court has ordered the parent to appear in person at any or all subsequent hearings in the proceeding, the parent fails to appear in person as ordered, and the court finds that the parent’s conduct in failing to appear in person was egregious and without clear and justifiable excuse. Under the bill, failure by a parent to appear in person at consecutive hearings as ordered is presumed to be conduct that is egregious and without clear and justifiable excuse. The bill, however, requires a parent who has waived counsel or who is presumed to have waived counsel to be represented by counsel in a proceeding to vacate or reconsider a default judgment involuntarily terminating parental rights.
