Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill, should it be enacted, pertains to situations when a person's driving privilege is revoked for an impoundment violation. In those situations, the Department of Transportation (DOT) must impound the registration plate owned, leased, or registered in the violator's name. Under certain circumstances, DOT may issue special registration plates to the violator. Those who fail to comply with an impoundment order may be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Prosecutors do not anticipate a fiscal impact on their offices because of this bill.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

Should this bill be enacted, prosecutors do not expect there to be a long-term fiscal impact on their offices.
