Fiscal Estimate Narratives

DOR 1/28/2014

Description
Exempting from taxation certain amounts received by a realtor for the sale of a foreclosed property

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill creates an individual income tax deduction for any amount of commission that is received by licensed real estate brokers or salespersons on the sale of a foreclosed property, provided that the property sells for $50,000 or less.

Based on Department of Revenue data, approximately 181,000 properties were transferred in 2012 with a real estate transfer return. Of those properties, 2,800 included a transfer fee exemption code indicating the property was subject to foreclosure and also listed a total real estate value of $50,000 or less. The combined value of those 2,800 properties was listed as $87.9 million.

Assuming combined commissions of 6% for the real estate brokers, the total commission subject to the deduction in this bill would have been approximately $5.3 million in 2012. Further applying an average marginal tax rate of 4.93%, the bill would be expected to reduce revenue by approximately $260,000 annually beginning in fiscal year 2015.

To the extent that the number of foreclosure sales fluctuates annually, the fiscal effect would be higher or lower as well.
