Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

As under current law, the proposed legislation authorizes the governing body of a private school to establish criteria for its students to serve as election inspectors when the student has not attained at least a 3.0 grade point average or the equivalent. For purposes of election law, the proposed legislation only creates a definition for the governing body of a private school which may establish that criteria, and does not alter the number or qualifications of election inspectors. Municipal governing bodies approve the list of individuals to serve as election inspectors. The proposed legislation will have no fiscal impact on the ability or costs of the private school governing body establishing criteria for its students, the local governing body in appointing election inspectors, or the State in providing training resources for local election officials.
