

WISCONSIN LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL ACT MEMO

| | |
|---|---|
| 2013 Wisconsin Act 109 [2013 Senate Bill 295] | Information for Firearm Background Check |
|---|---|

Act 109 creates additional means for firearms dealers to convey information for firearms background checks to the Department of Justice (DOJ).

Under current law, a firearms dealer may convey required information for a firearms background check to DOJ using a toll-free telephone number provided by DOJ.

The Act also permits a firearms dealer to convey such information using an alternative means provided by DOJ.

Effective date: Act 109 took effect on December 15, 2013.

Prepared by: Anne Sappenfield, Principal Attorney

February 19, 2014

AS:jb;ksm

This memo provides a brief description of the Act. For more detailed information, consult the text of the law and related legislative documents at the Legislature's Web site at: <http://www.legis.wisconsin.gov>.