2013 Assembly Bill 190	Assembly Amendment 1
Memo published: May 24, 2013	Contact: Margit Kelley, Staff Attorney (266-9280)

2013 Assembly Bill 190 relates to travel, association, and residency conditions of release before trial for individuals charged with felony sexual assault of a child.

2013 ASSEMBLY BILL 190

Assembly Bill 190 requires a judge to impose the following conditions of release on bail, when a person is charged with first- or second-degree sexual assault of a child, or repeated acts of sexual assault of the same child:

- To avoid the alleged child victim's residence, temporary residence, school, or place of employment.
- To avoid contacting, attempting to contact, or causing another person to contact the alleged child victim.
- To not reside within 250 feet of the alleged child victim's residence, or a greater distance if so ordered, and to not reside on a property that is adjacent to the alleged child victim's residence.

ASSEMBLY AMENDMENT 1

Assembly Amendment 1 to the bill corrects an incomplete phrase in a cross-reference.

BILL HISTORY

On May 23, 2013, the Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice recommended adoption of the amendment, and recommended passage of the bill, as amended, on votes of Ayes, 7; Noes, 0; Absent, 2.
