2013 Senate Bill 237 makes several changes to the requirements for obtaining a barbering license. These changes are:

- Removes the activities of dyeing, tinting, coloring, or bleaching a person's hair from the definition of barbering.
- Eliminates the requirement that the 1,000 classroom hour course of instruction in barbering must be spread out over a 10-month period.
- Reduces the number of practical training hours a barbering apprentice must complete from 3,712 to 1,712.
- Eliminates the requirement that a barbering or cosmetology course of instruction may not exceed eight hours in one day or 48 hours in one week.

Senate Amendment 1 restores dyeing, tinting, coloring, and bleaching hair to the definition of barbering, and also adds waxing to the definition.
