The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL PREFATORY NOTE: This bill was prepared for the Joint Legislative Council's Special Committee on Permanency for Young Children in the Child Welfare System.

Child in Need of Protection or Services (CHIPS) Petition and Subsequent Involuntary Termination of Parental Rights (TPR) Based Upon an Involuntary TPR Within the Prior Three Years

Under current law, a court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under the Children's Code (juvenile court) has jurisdiction over a child who is alleged to be in need of protection or services. A juvenile court may issue an order to remove the child from the home and may order that services be provided if the child meets one of several specified conditions, including abuse or neglect of the child.

Also under current law, a petition for an involuntary TPR to a child may be filed against a person, if within three years prior to the date of birth of the child a juvenile court has ordered an involuntary TPR with respect to another child of the person.

This bill creates a new ground to file a CHIPS petition. The bill grants the juvenile court jurisdiction over a child who is under three years of age and whose parent had his or her parental rights involuntarily terminated with respect to another child within three years prior to the child's date of birth, if the juvenile court found at a temporary physical custody (TPC) hearing that the child should be continued in custody and if the parent has the right to counsel under s. 48.23, stats., and had that right during the proceeding under s. 48.21, stats., unless that right has been knowingly and voluntarily waived. The bill also allows a TPR petition to be filed with respect to a child found to be in need of protection or services based upon the new CHIPS ground created under this bill. The juvenile court must provide oral and written notification of this fact when entering an order terminating the parental rights of one or both parents with respect to a previous child. The bill also allows a juvenile court to appoint a guardian for a child adjudged to be in need of protection or services based upon the new CHIPS ground.

ASSEMBLY BILL 152

TPR -- Continuing Need of Protection or Services

Under current law, in order to terminate a person's parental rights, a court or a jury must find that one or more statutory grounds exist. One of the grounds under which an involuntary TPR may be filed is if a child is in continuing need of protection or services (continuing CHIPS). This ground may be established by proving all of the following elements:

- The child has been adjudicated in need of protection or services and continues to be placed outside the home under the CHIPS order.
- The responsible social services agency has made reasonable efforts to provide the services ordered by the court.
- The child has been placed outside the home for a cumulative total period of six months or longer pursuant to the CHIPS order.
- The parent has failed to meet the conditions established for the safe return of the child to the home.
- There is a substantial likelihood that the parent will not meet the conditions established for the safe return of the child to the home within the next nine months after the TPR fact-finding hearing.

This bill deletes from the TPR ground of continuing CHIPS the showing that there is a substantial likelihood that the parent will continue to fail for the next nine months to meet the conditions for the safe return of the child to the home. However, the bill provides that if the child has been placed outside the home for less than 15 of the last 22 months, the petitioner must show that there is a substantial likelihood that the parent will not meet the conditions at the time the child will reach the 15th of the last 22 months of placement outside the home.

TPR -- Continuing Parental Disability

Under current law, a parent's continuing disability is a ground for involuntary TPR. This ground requires all of the following findings: 1) the parent is currently receiving inpatient treatment in a hospital or treatment facility for mental illness, developmental disability, or other like incapacity; 2) the parent has received inpatient treatment in one or more hospitals or treatment facilities for a cumulative total period of at least two of the last five years immediately prior to the filing of the TPR petition; 3) the parent's condition is likely to continue indefinitely; and 4) the child is not being provided with adequate care by a relative, parent, or guardian.

This bill revises the TPR ground of a continuing parental disability to require a parent to have had an inpatient treatment history for at least 15 of the last 22 months prior to the filing of the TPR petition, rather than an inpatient treatment history for at least two of the last five years.

TPR -- Parenthood as a Result of Sexual Assault

Under current law, a parent's commission of sexual assault that results in conception of a child is a ground for TPR. Conception as a result of sexual assault may be proven by a final judgment of conviction or other evidence produced at a fact-finding hearing showing that the person who may be the father committed sexual assault against the mother during a possible time of conception. The mother of the child must be afforded an opportunity to be heard on her desire for the termination of the father's parental rights.

This bill revises the TPR ground of conception as a result of sexual assault to apply that ground equally to a mother, as well as a father, who commits a sexual assault leading to the conception of a child. The bill, however, specifies that the ground is inapplicable to a person who committed a nonviolent sexual assault of a minor, if the person was also a minor at the time of the assault and the age difference between the person and the victim is four years or less.

In addition, under current law, a juvenile court is not required to provide notice of a CHIPS or TPR action to a person who may be the father of a child conceived as a result of a sexual assault, if a physician attests to a belief that there was a sexual assault of the child's mother that may have resulted in the child's conception.

This bill eliminates that physician attestation requirement from those notice exceptions and instead requires proof of a sexual assault by a final judgment of conviction or other evidence. Under the bill, that notice exception does not apply to a father who was under age 18 at the time of a nonviolent sexual assault of a minor, if the age difference between the father and the victim is four years or less.

TPR -- Pattern of Child Abuse; Homicide of Parent; and Felony Against a Child

Under current law, a parent's commission of certain egregious crimes is a ground for TPR. These crimes include: 1) exhibiting a pattern of physically or sexually abusive behavior that is a substantial threat to the health of the child (child abuse); 2) committing homicide or soliciting the homicide of the other parent (homicide of a parent); or 3) committing a serious felony against the person's own child or committing child trafficking against any child (felony against a child).

Each of these grounds requires evidence of a final judgment of conviction for the crime. In order for a judgment of conviction to be considered as final under the law, the time for appeal must have expired, or, if appealed, all appeals directly challenging the parent's guilt must be exhausted.

This bill revises the TPR grounds of child abuse, homicide of a parent, and felony against a child to allow evidence of the criminal conduct itself to be proven, as an alternative to allowing proof by a final judgment of conviction.

Reasonable Efforts to Return a Child Safely Home

The federal Adoption and Safe Families Act of 1997 (ASFA) requires that reasonable efforts be made to preserve and reunify a family prior to a child's removal from the home, and, if a child is removed from the home, that reasonable efforts be made to make it possible for the child's safe return to the home or to achieve any other goal of the child's permanency plan (reasonable efforts).

ASFA specifies that reasonable efforts "shall not be required" under certain egregious circumstances. These circumstances have been codified in Wisconsin law to specify that a juvenile court is not required to include a finding as to whether an agency has made reasonable efforts if a parent:

- Has subjected the child to aggravated circumstances, including torture, chronic abuse, sexual abuse, or felony abandonment of the child.
- Committed or attempted murder of the child's other parent.

ASSEMBLY BILL 152

- Committed an assault crime that resulted in great or substantial bodily harm to the child or another child of the parent.
- Had parental rights to another child involuntarily terminated.
- Has relinquished custody of the child within 72 hours of the child's birth.

Wisconsin law does not expressly prohibit a juvenile court from requiring a social service agency to make reasonable efforts in these circumstances, nor does the law specify a standard to evaluate when reasonable efforts may be required under these circumstances.

In addition, under Wisconsin law, when considering a TPR petition on the ground of continuing CHIPS, a number of elements must be found, including that a social services agency has made reasonable efforts to provide the services ordered by the juvenile court. No exception is made for the egregious circumstances under which reasonable efforts are not required under ASFA, as codified in Wisconsin law.

This bill revises the requirements relating to reasonable efforts as follows:

- The bill specifies that a juvenile court must determine that an agency is not required to make reasonable efforts if there are egregious circumstances under which reasonable efforts are not required, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in the best interests of the child.
- The bill specifies in the TPR ground based on continuing CHIPS that the requirement for an agency to have made reasonable efforts to reunify the family is inapplicable for any period when reasonable efforts were not required due to the egregious circumstances specified in statute.

Because the Juvenile Justice Code contains parallel provisions to the Children's Code for holding a child or juvenile in custody, the bill revises the parallel provisions relating to reasonable efforts in both the Children's Code and the Juvenile Justice Code to make both codes consistent.

Waiver of Counsel; Parent's Signature

Under current law, in a proceeding involving TPR, or a contested adoption, a parent who appears before the juvenile court must be represented by counsel. A parent 18 years of age or over may waive counsel if the juvenile court is satisfied that the waiver is knowingly and voluntarily made. However, a parent under age 18 may not waive counsel.

Current law also provides that if an attorney represented a parent during a TPR proceeding, and has not been discharged, the representation continues during a TPR appeal.

The Wisconsin Supreme Court has strictly construed the statute requiring representation during an involuntary TPR proceeding in holding that an attorney may not be discharged from representing a parent who fails to cooperate with the court and the attorney. [State v. Shirley E., 2006 WI 129; State v. Darrell K., 2010 AP 1910 (Wis. Ct. App., Oct. 19, 2010, unpublished).]

This bill specifies that a parent 18 years of age or over who was ordered to appear in person at hearings for an involuntary TPR or contested adoption proceeding, but who has failed to appear, is considered to have waived the right to counsel. A failure to appear by an adult parent must be egregious and without clear and justifiable excuse, which may be presumed from a parent's failure to appear at consecutive hearings.

This bill also requires a parent's signature, in addition to counsel's signature, on a notice of intent to appeal or notice of appeal from a TPR judgment, petition for rehearing from a CHIPS adjudication or TPR judgment, or motion for postdisposition relief from a CHIPS adjudication or TPR judgment.

ASSEMBLY BILL 152TPR Participation by Alleged Father

Under current law, an alleged father must be served with a TPR summons and petition. If paternity is then established during the TPR proceedings, the father may further participate in the proceedings.

In order for an alleged father to participate in the TPR proceedings after paternity has been established, at least one of the following must have occurred:

- The alleged father has filed a declaration of paternal interest upon the child's birth or upon receipt of the TPR petition, and the declaration has not been revoked.
- The mother (or other source) alleges the man to be the father.
- The man has lived in a familial relationship with the child and may be the father of the child.

This bill removes the right of an alleged father who is determined in the TPR proceedings to be the father, but who has not otherwise declared or established a relationship with the child, to further participate in the proceedings. Specifically, under the bill, a man determined to be the father may further participate in a TPR proceeding only if the man: 1) filed a declaration of paternal interest upon the child's birth or upon receipt of the TPR petition and the declaration has not been revoked; 2) established and maintained a familial relationship with the child; or 3) establishes that he has been deprived of the opportunity to assume parental responsibility for the child.

The bill retains the requirement that an alleged father be served with a TPR summons and petition, regardless of whether the alleged father has declared or established and maintained a familial relationship with the child.

1 SECTION 1. 48.13 (14) of the statutes is created to read:

2 48.13 (14) Who is less than 3 years of age and whose parent, within 3 years
3 prior to the date of birth of the child, had his or her parental rights to another child
4 involuntarily terminated by a court, if a judge or circuit court commissioner has 5 found that the child should be continued in custody under s. 48.21 (4) and if that 6 parent has the right to counsel under s. 48.23 and had that right during the 7 proceeding under s. 48.21, unless this right has been knowingly and voluntarily
8 waived.

NOTE: This SECTION creates a new ground on which the juvenile court has jurisdiction over a child in need of protection or services. The ground grants the juvenile court jurisdiction over a child who is under three years of age and whose parent has had his or her parental rights to another child involuntarily terminated within three years prior to the child's birth, if the juvenile court found at a TPC hearing that the child should be continued in custody and if the parent has the right to counsel and had that right during the TPC hearing, unless that right has been knowingly and voluntarily waived.

9 SECTION 2. 48.21 (5) (b) 3. of the statutes is amended to read:

ASSEMBLY BILL 152

1 48.21 (5) (b) 3. If the judge or circuit court commissioner finds that any of the
2 circumstances specified in s. 48.355 (2d) (b) 1. to 5. applies with respect to a parent,
3 a determination that the county department, department, in a county having a
4 population of 500,000 or more, or agency primarily responsible for providing services
5 under the custody order is not required to make reasonable efforts with respect to the 6 parent to make it possible for the child to return safely to his or her home, unless the 7 judge or circuit court commissioner determines or has determined under a prior 8 order that such efforts would be in the best interests of the child.

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that at a TPC hearing for a child alleged to be in need of protection or services, the juvenile court must determine that an agency is not required to make reasonable efforts to return a child safely home when the statutorily defined egregious circumstances are found to exist, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in the best interests of the child.

9 SECTION 3. 48.23 (2) of the statutes is renumbered 48.23 (2) (a) and amended
10 to read:

11 48.23 (2) RIGHT OF PARENTS PARENT TO COUNSEL. (a) Whenever a child is the 12 subject of a proceeding involving a contested adoption or ~~the~~ an involuntary
13 termination of parental rights, any parent under 18 years of age who appears before
14 the court shall be represented by counsel; ~~but~~ and no such parent may waive counsel.
15 Except as provided in sub. (2g), a minor parent petitioning for the voluntary 16 termination of parental rights shall be represented by a guardian ad litem. If

17 (b) In a proceeding involves involving a contested adoption or ~~the~~ an 18 involuntary termination of parental rights, any parent 18 years ~~old of age~~ or older
19 who appears before the court shall be represented by counsel; ~~but the parent may~~ 20 ~~waive counsel provided the court is satisfied such waiver is knowingly and~~
21 ~~voluntarily made, except as provided in par. (c).~~

NOTE: This SECTION separates the current language governing the right to counsel between a minor parent and a parent 18 years of age or over, and makes the right to counsel for an adult parent subject to a waiver by an egregious and unjustifiable failure to appear.

ASSEMBLY BILL 152SECTION 3

1 SECTION 4. 48.23 (2) (c) and (d) of the statutes are created to read:

2 48.23 (2) (c) Counsel under this subsection may be waived as follows:

3 1. A parent 18 years of age or over may waive counsel if the court is satisfied
4 that the waiver is knowingly and voluntarily made.

5 2. A parent 18 years of age or over is presumed to have waived his or her right
6 to counsel and to appear by counsel if the court has ordered the parent to appear in 7 person at any or all subsequent hearings in the proceeding, the parent fails to appear
8 in person as ordered, and the court finds that the parent's conduct in failing to appear
9 was egregious and without clear and justifiable excuse. Failure by a parent 18 years
10 of age or over to appear in person at consecutive hearings as ordered by the court is 11 presumed to be egregious and without clear and justifiable excuse.

12 3. If a parent 18 years of age or over waives counsel under subd. 1. or 2., the 13 court may discharge counsel.

14 (d) In a proceeding to vacate a default judgment or for reconsideration of a 15 default judgment terminating parental rights, a parent who had waived counsel
16 shall be represented by counsel, except as provided in par. (c) 1. or 2.

NOTE: This SECTION provides that a parent 18 years of age or over who was ordered to appear in person at hearings for an involuntary TPR or contested adoption proceeding, but who has failed to appear, is considered to have waived the right to counsel, if the juvenile court finds that the parent's conduct in failing to appear was egregious and without clear and justifiable excuse. The bill provides that consecutive failures by an adult parent to appear are presumed to be egregious and without clear and justifiable excuse. The bill also provides that a right to counsel is reinstated for a motion to vacate or reconsider a default TPR judgment, if counsel was waived during the TPR proceeding in which the default judgement was entered.

17 SECTION 5. 48.27 (3) (b) 2. of the statutes is amended to read:

18 48.27 (3) (b) 2. A court is not required to provide notice, under subd. 1., to any 19 person who may be the father of a child ~~conceived as a result of a sexual assault if~~

ASSEMBLY BILL 152

1 a physician attests to his or her belief that there was if a sexual assault of the child's
2 mother that may have resulted in the child's conception is proved by a final judgment
3 of conviction or other evidence. A person who is not given notice under this
4 subdivision does not have standing to appear and contest a petition under s. 48.13
5 or 48.133, present evidence relevant to the issue of disposition, or make alternative
6 dispositional recommendations. This subdivision does not apply to a person who may 7 be the father of a child conceived as a result of a sexual assault under s. 948.02 (1)
8 (b) or (e) or (2) or 948.09, if that person was under 18 years of age at the time of the 9 sexual assault and was not more than 4 years older or not more than 4 years younger
10 than the victim and if the assault did not involve the use or threat of force or violence.

NOTE: This SECTION removes the requirement that a physician attest to a belief that there was a sexual assault from the exception from providing notice of a CHIPS proceeding to a person who may be the father of the child, and instead requires proof of a sexual assault by a final judgment of conviction or other evidence. This SECTION, however, requires notice of a CHIPS proceeding to be given to a father who was under age 18 at the time of a nonviolent sexual assault of a minor, if the age difference between the father and the victim is four years or less.

11 SECTION 6. 48.32 (1) (b) 2. of the statutes is amended to read:

12 48.32 (1) (b) 2. If the judge or circuit court commissioner finds that any of the 13 circumstances specified in s. 48.355 (2d) (b) 1. to 5. applies with respect to a parent,
14 the consent decree shall include a determination that the county department, 15 department, in a county having a population of 500,000 or more, or agency primarily 16 responsible for providing services under the consent decree is not required to make
17 reasonable efforts with respect to the parent to make it possible for the child to return
18 safely to his or her home, unless the judge or circuit court commissioner determines 19 or has determined under a prior order that such efforts would be in the best interests
20 of the child.

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that in a CHIPS consent decree the juvenile court must determine that an agency is not required to make reasonable efforts to return a child safely home when the statutorily defined egregious circumstances are found to exist, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in the best interests of the child.

ASSEMBLY BILL 152SECTION 6

1 SECTION 7. 48.355 (2) (b) 6r. of the statutes is amended to read:

2 48.355 (2) (b) 6r. If the court finds that any of the circumstances specified in 3 sub. (2d) (b) 1. to 5. applies with respect to a parent, a determination that the county
4 department, department, in a county having a population of 500,000 or more, or 5 agency primarily responsible for providing services under the court order is not 6 required to make reasonable efforts with respect to the parent to make it possible for 7 the child to return safely to his or her home, unless the court determines or has 8 determined under a prior order that such efforts would be in the best interests of the 9 child.

NOTE: This SECTION requires the juvenile court to include in a CHIPS dispositional order a determination that an agency is not required to make reasonable efforts to return a child safely home when the statutorily defined egregious circumstances are found to exist, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in the best interests of the child.

10 SECTION 8. 48.355 (2d) (b) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

11 48.355 (2d) (b) (intro.) ~~Notwithstanding sub. (2) (b) 6., the~~ The court is ~~not~~
12 ~~required to~~ shall include in a dispositional order a ~~finding as to whether~~
13 ~~determination that~~ the county department, the department, in a county having a 14 population of 500,000 or more, or the agency primarily responsible for providing 15 services under a court order ~~has made~~ is not required to make reasonable efforts with 16 respect to a parent of a child to prevent the removal of the child from the home, ~~while~~ 17 ~~assuring that the child's health and safety are the paramount concerns, or a finding~~ 18 ~~as to whether the county department, department, or agency has made reasonable~~ 19 ~~efforts with respect to a parent of a child~~ or to achieve the permanency goal of 20 returning the child safely to his or her home, unless the court determines or has

ASSEMBLY BILL 152

1 determined under a prior order that such efforts would be in the best interests of the
2 child, if the court finds any of the following:

NOTE: This SECTION requires the juvenile court to include in a CHIPS dispositional order a determination that an agency is not required to make reasonable efforts to prevent a child's removal or return a child safely home when the statutorily defined egregious circumstances are found to exist, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in the best interests of the child.

3 SECTION 9. 48.355 (2d) (c) of the statutes is renumbered 48.355 (2d) (c) (intro.)
4 and amended to read:

5 48.355 (2d) (c) If the court finds that any of the circumstances specified in par.

6 (b) 1. to 5. applies with respect to a parent, the court shall hold do all of the following:

7 2. Hold a hearing under s. 48.38 (4m) within 30 days after the date of that
8 finding to determine the permanency goal and, if applicable, any concurrent
9 permanency goals for the child.

10 SECTION 10. 48.355 (2d) (c) 1. of the statutes is created to read:

11 48.355 (2d) (c) 1. Include in the order a determination that the person or agency
12 primarily responsible for providing services to the child is not required to make
13 reasonable efforts with respect to the parent to make it possible for the child to return
14 safely to his or her home, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in 15 the best interests of the child.

NOTE: SECTIONS 9 and 10 require the juvenile court to include in a CHIPS dispositional order a determination that an agency is not required to make reasonable efforts to return a child safely home when the statutorily defined egregious circumstances are found to exist, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in the best interests of the child.

16 SECTION 11. 48.357 (2v) (a) 3. of the statutes is amended to read:

17 48.357 (2v) (a) 3. If the court finds that any of the circumstances specified in 18 s. 48.355 (2d) (b) 1. to 5. applies with respect to a parent, a determination that the
19 agency primarily responsible for providing services under the change in placement
20 order is not required to make reasonable efforts with respect to the parent to make

ASSEMBLY BILL 152SECTION 11

1 it possible for the child to return safely to his or her home, unless the court
2 determines or has determined under a prior order that such efforts would be in the
3 best interests of the child.

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that in a CHIPS change-in-placement order the juvenile court must determine that an agency is not required to make reasonable efforts to return a child safely home when the statutorily defined egregious circumstances are found to exist, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in the best interests of the child.

4 SECTION 12. 48.365 (2m) (a) 2. of the statutes is amended to read:

5 48.365 (2m) (a) 2. If the judge finds that any of the circumstances specified in 6 s. 48.355 (2d) (b) 1. to 5. applies with respect to a parent, the order shall include a
7 determination that the person or agency primarily responsible for providing services
8 to the child is not required to make reasonable efforts with respect to the parent to 9 make it possible for the child to return safely to his or her home, unless the judge
10 determines or has determined under a prior order that such efforts would be in the 11 best interests of the child.

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that in a CHIPS extension order, the juvenile court must determine that an agency is not required to make reasonable efforts to return a child safely home when the statutorily defined egregious circumstances are found to exist, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in the best interests of the child.

12 SECTION 13. 48.415 (2) (a) 2. b. of the statutes is amended to read:

13 48.415 (2) (a) 2. b. That the agency responsible for the care of the child and the 14 family or of the unborn child and expectant mother has made a reasonable effort to 15 provide the services ordered by the court, excluding any period during which the 16 responsible agency was not required under s. 48.355 (2) (b) 6r., 48.357 (2v) (a) 3., 17 48.365 (2m) (a) 2., 938.355 (2) (b) 6r., 938.357 (2v) (a) 3., or 938.365 (2m) (a) 2. to make 18 reasonable efforts with respect to a parent to make it possible for the child to return
19 safely to his or her home.

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that, for the TPR ground of continuing CHIPS, the requirement that reasonable efforts have been made to provide the services ordered by the juvenile court does not apply to any period when reasonable efforts for reunification were not required by the juvenile court.

ASSEMBLY BILL 152

1 SECTION 14. 48.415 (2) (a) 3. of the statutes is amended to read:
2 48.415 (2) (a) 3. That the child has been outside the home for a cumulative total
3 period of 6 months or longer pursuant to such orders not including time spent outside
4 the home as an unborn child; ~~and~~ that the parent has failed to meet the conditions
5 established for the safe return of the child to the home ~~and there is a substantial~~
6 likelihood that the parent will not meet these conditions within the 9-month period
7 ~~following the fact-finding hearing under s. 48.424; and, if the child has been placed~~
8 outside of his or her home for less than 15 of the last 22 months, that there is a
9 substantial likelihood that the parent will not meet these conditions as of the date
10 on which the child will have been placed outside of his or her home pursuant to such 11 orders for 15 of the most recent 22 months, not including any period during which 12 the child was a runaway from the out-of-home placement or was residing in a trial
13 reunification home.

NOTE: This SECTION revises the continuing CHIPS ground for involuntary TPR to eliminate the requirement to show that a parent is substantially likely to not meet the conditions for the safe return of the child within the next nine months following the fact-finding hearing. If, however, the child has been placed outside the home for less than 15 of the last 22 months, the petitioner must show that there is a substantial likelihood that the parent will not meet the conditions at the time the child will reach the 15th of the last 22 months of placement outside the home.

14 SECTION 15. 48.415 (3) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:
15 48.415 (3) (a) The parent is presently, and for a cumulative total period of at 16 least ~~2 years~~ 15 months within the ~~5 years~~ 22 months immediately prior to the filing
17 of the petition has been, an inpatient at one or more hospitals, as defined in s. 50.33
18 (2) (a), (b) or (c), ~~licensed~~ approved treatment facilities as defined in s. 51.01 (2), or 19 state treatment facilities, as defined in s. 51.01 (15), on account of mental illness, as

ASSEMBLY BILL 152SECTION 15

1 defined in s. 51.01 (13) (a) or (b), developmental disability, as defined in s. 55.01 (2),
2 or other like incapacities, as defined in s. 55.01 (5);

NOTE: This SECTION revises the TPR ground of a continuing parental disability to require a parent to have had inpatient treatment history for at least 15 of the last 22 months prior to the filing of the TPR petition, rather than an inpatient treatment history for at least two of the last five years. This SECTION also corrects the terminology for an “approved treatment facility,” as defined in the statutes.

3 SECTION 16. 48.415 (5) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

4 48.415 (5) (a) That the parent has caused death or injury to a child or children
5 resulting in a, which may be proved by a final judgment of felony conviction or other 6 evidence produced at a fact-finding hearing under s. 48.424 indicating that the 7 person caused the death or injury.

NOTE: This SECTION revises the TPR ground of a pattern of child abuse to allow evidence of the criminal conduct itself to be proven, as an alternative to allowing proof by a final judgment of conviction.

8 SECTION 17. 48.415 (8) of the statutes is amended to read:

9 48.415 (8) HOMICIDE OR SOLICITATION TO COMMIT HOMICIDE OF PARENT. Homicide 10 or solicitation to commit homicide of a parent, which shall be established by proving 11 that a parent of the child has been a victim of first-degree intentional homicide in 12 violation of s. 940.01, first-degree reckless homicide in violation of s. 940.02, or 13 2nd-degree intentional homicide in violation of s. 940.05 or a crime under federal law
14 or the law of any other state that is comparable to any of those crimes, or has been 15 the intended victim of a solicitation to commit first-degree intentional homicide in 16 violation of s. 939.30 or a crime under federal law or the law of any other state that 17 is comparable to that crime, and that the person whose parental rights are sought 18 to be terminated has ~~been convicted of~~ committed that intentional or reckless 19 homicide, or solicitation or comparable crime under federal law or the law of any 20 other state as evidenced by a final judgment of conviction or other evidence produced

ASSEMBLY BILL 152

1 at a fact-finding hearing under s. 48.424 indicating that the person committed or
2 solicited homicide of a parent as described in this subsection.

NOTE: This SECTION revises the TPR ground of homicide, or a solicitation to commit homicide, of the child's other parent to allow evidence of the criminal conduct itself to be proven, as an alternative to allowing proof by a final judgment of conviction.

3 SECTION 18. 48.415 (9) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

4 48.415 (9) (a) ~~Parenthood~~ Except as provided in par. (c), parenthood as a result
5 of sexual assault, which shall be established by proving that the child was conceived
6 as a result of a sexual assault in violation of s. 940.225 (1), (2), or (3), 948.02 (1) or 7 (2), 948.025, or 948.085. Conception as a result of sexual assault as specified in this
8 paragraph may be proved by a final judgment of conviction or other evidence 9 produced at a fact-finding hearing under s. 48.424 indicating that the ~~person who~~
10 ~~may be the father~~ parent of the child committed, during a possible time of conception, 11 a sexual assault as specified in this paragraph against the ~~mother~~ other parent of the 12 child.

NOTE: This SECTION revises the TPR ground of conception as a result of sexual assault to apply that ground equally to a mother, as well as a father, who commits a sexual assault leading to the conception of a child, rather than referring only to the father as the person who committed the sexual assault.

13 SECTION 19. 48.415 (9) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

14 48.415 (9) (b) If the conviction or other evidence specified in par. (a) indicates
15 that the child was conceived as a result of a sexual assault in violation of s. 948.02
16 (1) or (2) or 948.085, the ~~mother of the child~~ parent who was the victim of the sexual 17 assault may be heard on his or her desire for the termination of the ~~father's~~ other 18 person's parental rights.

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that a juvenile court must allow either a mother or father who was a victim of sexual assault of a minor, or a victim of sexual assault of a minor by an out-of-home care provider, to be heard on his or her desires regarding the TPR of the other parent, rather than allowing only a mother, as a victim, to be heard.

19 SECTION 20. 48.415 (9) (c) of the statutes is created to read:

ASSEMBLY BILL 152SECTION 20

1 48.415 (9) (c) This subsection does not apply to a parent who committed sexual
2 assault under s. 948.02 (1) (b) or (e) or (2) or 948.09, if that person was under 18 years
3 of age at the time of the sexual assault and was not more than 4 years older or not
4 more than 4 years younger than the victim and if the assault did not involve the use
5 or threat of force or violence.

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that the TPR ground of conception as a result of sexual assault is inapplicable to a person who committed a nonviolent sexual assault of a minor, if the person was also a minor at the time of the assault and the age difference between the person and the victim is four years or less.

6 SECTION 21. 48.415 (9m) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

7 48.415 (9m) (a) Commission of a serious felony against one of the person's 8 children, which shall be established by proving that a child of the person whose 9 parental rights are sought to be terminated was the victim of a serious felony and 10 that the person whose parental rights are sought to be terminated has ~~been convicted~~ 11 of committed that serious felony as evidenced by a final judgment of conviction or 12 other evidence produced at a fact-finding hearing under s. 48.424 indicating that the 13 person committed a serious felony against one of the person's children.

NOTE: This SECTION revises the TPR ground of felony against a child to allow evidence of the criminal conduct itself to be proven, as an alternative to allowing proof by a final judgment of conviction.

14 SECTION 22. 48.415 (10) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

15 48.415 (10) (a) That the child who is the subject of the petition has been 16 adjudged to be in need of protection or services under s. 48.13 (2), (3) ~~or~~, (10), or (14);
17 or that the child who is the subject of the petition was born after the filing of a petition
18 under this subsection whose subject is a sibling of the child.

NOTE: This SECTION allows a TPR petition to be filed if the parent's child was found to be in need of protection or services based on the new CHIPS ground created under SECTION 1.

19 SECTION 23. 48.42 (2) (b) 3. of the statutes is amended to read:

ASSEMBLY BILL 152

1 48.42 (2) (b) 3. A person who has ~~lived in~~ established and maintained a familial
2 relationship with the child and who may be the father of the child.

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that in order for an alleged father to be summoned for a TPR proceeding, one method of protecting that right is by having established and maintained a familial relationship with the child, even if the alleged father has not lived with the child.

3 SECTION 24. 48.42 (2m) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

4 48.42 (2m) (a) Parent as a result of sexual assault. Except as provided in this
5 paragraph, notice is not required to be given to a person who may be the father of a 6 child ~~conceived as a result of~~ if a sexual assault of the child's mother in violation of 7 s. 940.225 (1), (2), or (3), 948.02 (1) or (2), 948.025, or 948.085 ~~if a physician attests~~
8 ~~to his or her belief that a sexual assault as specified in this paragraph has occurred~~
9 ~~or if the person who may be the father of the child has been convicted of sexual assault~~
10 ~~as specified in this paragraph for conduct which may have led to the child's~~ 11 ~~conception~~ that may have resulted in the child's conception is proved by a final 12 judgment of conviction or other evidence. A person who under this paragraph is not 13 given notice does not have standing to appear and contest a petition for the 14 termination of his parental rights, present evidence relevant to the issue of 15 disposition, or make alternative dispositional recommendations. This paragraph 16 does not apply to a person who may be the father of a child conceived as a result of 17 a sexual assault ~~in violation of~~ under s. 948.02 (1) (b) or (e) or (2) or 948.09, if that 18 person was under 18 years of age at the time of the sexual assault and was not more
19 than 4 years older or not more than 4 years younger than the victim and if the assault
20 did not involve the use or threat of force or violence.

NOTE: This SECTION removes the requirement that a physician attest to a belief that there was a sexual assault from the exception from providing notice of a TPR proceeding to a person who may be the father of the child, and instead requires proof by a final judgment of conviction or other evidence. This SECTION, however, requires notice of a TPR proceeding to be given to a father who was under 18 years of age at the time of a nonviolent sexual assault of a minor, if the age difference between the father and the victim is four years or less.

1 SECTION 25. 48.423 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

2 48.423 (1) RIGHTS TO PATERNITY DETERMINATION. If a person appears at the
3 hearing and claims that he is the father of the child, the court shall set a date for a 4 hearing on the issue of paternity or, if all parties agree, the court may immediately
5 commence hearing testimony concerning the issue of paternity. The court shall 6 inform the person claiming to be the father of the child of any right to counsel under 7 s. 48.23. The person claiming to be the father of the child must prove paternity by 8 clear and convincing evidence. A person who establishes his paternity of the child
9 under this section may further participate in the termination of parental rights
10 proceeding only if the person meets the conditions specified in sub. (2) or, meets a 11 condition specified in s. 48.42 (2) (b) 1. or 3. or (bm), or establishes that he has been 12 deprived of the opportunity to assume parental responsibility for the child.

NOTE: This SECTION removes the right of a man alleged to be the father of a child, who has not filed a declaration of parental interest or established and maintained a familial relationship with the child, to further participate in a TPR proceeding after his paternity has been determined, unless he establishes that he has been deprived of the opportunity to assume parental responsibility for the child.

13 SECTION 26. 48.427 (7) of the statutes is amended to read:

14 48.427 (7) (a) If an order is entered under sub. (3), the court may orally inform 15 the parent or parents who appear in court of the ground for termination of parental
16 rights specified in s. 48.415 (10), except that the court shall orally inform the parent
17 or parents of the ground for termination of parental rights specified in s. 48.415 (10)
18 (a) to a child who has been adjudged to be in need of protection or services under s.
19 48.13 (14).

20 (b) In addition to the notice permitted under par. (a), any written order under 21 sub. (3) may notify the parent or parents of the information specified in par. (a),

ASSEMBLY BILL 152

1 except that the court shall provide written notification to the parent or parents of the 2 ground for termination of parental rights specified in s. 48.415 (10) (a) to a child who
3 has been adjudged to be in need of protection or services under s. 48.13 (14).

NOTE: This SECTION requires the juvenile court, when entering a TPR order, to provide oral and written notification to the parent or parents of the fact that this TPR order may be used to terminate their parental rights to another child, if the child is born within three years after the date of the TPR and the child is found to be in need of protection or services under the new CHIPS ground created under SECTION 1 of the bill.

4 SECTION 27. 48.46 (1), (1m) and (2) of the statutes are amended to read:

5 48.46 (1) Except as provided in subs. (1m), (2), and (3), the child whose status
6 is adjudicated by the court, the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of that child, the 7 unborn child whose status is adjudicated by the court, or the expectant mother of that 8 unborn child may, at any time within one year after the entering entry of the court's 9 order, petition the court for a rehearing on the ground that new evidence has been 10 discovered affecting the advisability of the court's original adjudication. Upon a 11 showing that such evidence does exist, the court shall order a new hearing.
12 Notwithstanding s. 802.05 (1), a petition by a parent under this subsection shall be
13 signed by the parent and by the parent's attorney of record, if any.

14 (1m) Except as provided in sub. (2), the parent, guardian, or legal custodian
15 of the child or the child whose status is adjudicated by the court in an order entered 16 under s. 48.43 or an order adjudicating paternity under subch. VIII may, within the 17 time permitted under this subsection, petition the court for a rehearing on the 18 ground that new evidence has been discovered affecting the advisability of the court's 19 adjudication. Upon a showing that such evidence does exist, the court shall order a 20 new hearing. A petition under this subsection shall be filed within one year after the 21 date on which the order under s. 48.43 or order adjudicating paternity under subch.
22 VIII is entered, unless within that ~~one~~-year period a court in this state or in another

ASSEMBLY BILL 152SECTION 27

1 jurisdiction enters an order granting adoption of the child, in which case a petition
2 under this subsection shall be filed before the date on which the order granting
3 adoption is entered or within 30 days after the date on which the order under s. 48.43
4 or order adjudicating paternity under subch. VIII is entered, whichever is later.
5 Notwithstanding s. 802.05 (1), a petition by a parent under this subsection shall be
6 signed by the parent and by the parent's attorney of record, if any.

7 (2) A parent who has consented to the termination of his or her parental rights
8 under s. 48.41 or who did not contest the petition initiating the proceeding in which 9 his or her parental rights were terminated may move the court for relief from the 10 judgment on any of the grounds specified in s. 806.07 (1) (a), (b), (c), (d), or (f).
11 Notwithstanding s. 802.05 (1), a motion by a parent under this subsection shall be 12 signed by the parent and by the parent's attorney of record, if any. Any such motion
13 shall be filed within 30 days after the entry of the judgment or order terminating 14 parental rights, unless the parent files a timely notice of intent to pursue relief from 15 the judgment under s. 808.04 (7m), in which case the motion shall be filed within the 16 time permitted by s. 809.107 (5). A motion under this subsection does not affect the 17 finality or suspend the operation of the judgment or order terminating parental
18 rights. A parent who has consented to the termination of his or her parental rights
19 to an Indian child under s. 48.41 (2) (e) may also move for relief from the judgment
20 under s. 48.028 (5) (c) or (6). Motions under this subsection or s. 48.028 (5) (c) or (6)
21 and appeals to the court of appeals shall be the exclusive remedies for such a parent
22 to obtain a new hearing in a termination of parental rights proceeding.

NOTE: This SECTION requires a parent to sign a petition for rehearing or motion for postdisposition relief from a CHIPS adjudication, paternity adjudication, or TPR order, whether or not the parent is represented, and retains the requirement under current law that the parent's attorney sign the petition or motion if the parent is represented.

23 SECTION 28. 48.977 (2) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

ASSEMBLY BILL 152

1 48.977 (2) (a) That the child has been adjudged to be in need of protection or 2 services under s. 48.13 (1), (2), (3), (3m), (4), (4m), (5), (8), (9), (10), (10m), (11), ~~or~~
3 (11m), or (14) or 938.13 (4) and been placed, or continued in a placement, outside of 4 his or her home pursuant to one or more court orders under s. 48.345, 48.357, 48.363,
5 48.365, 938.345, 938.357, 938.363, or 938.365 or that the child has been so adjudged
6 and placement of the child in the home of a guardian under this section has been 7 recommended under s. 48.33 (1) or 938.33 (1).

8 SECTION 29. 48.977 (4) (b) 3. of the statutes is amended to read:

9 48.977 (4) (b) 3. The date on which the child was adjudged in need of protection
10 or services under s. 48.13 (1), (2), (3), (3m), (4), (4m), (5), (8), (9), (10), (10m), (11), ~~or~~ 11 (11m), or (14) or 938.13 (4) and the dates on which the child has been placed, or 12 continued in a placement, outside of his or her home pursuant to one or more court
13 orders under s. 48.345, 48.357, 48.363, 48.365, 938.345, 938.357, 938.363, or 938.365
14 or, if the child has been so adjudged, but not so placed, the date of the report under 15 s. 48.33 (1) or 938.33 (1) in which placement of the child in the home of the person
16 is recommended.

NOTE: SECTIONS 28 and 29 allow the juvenile court to appoint a guardian for a child in need of protection or services based on the new ground created under SECTION 1.

17 SECTION 30. 809.10 (1) (b) 7. of the statutes is created to read:

18 809.10 (1) (b) 7. Notwithstanding s. 802.05 (1), if the appellant is a parent 19 appealing an order or judgment under s. 48.43, the parent's signature, and the 20 parent's attorney of record's signature, if the parent is represented.

NOTE: This SECTION requires a parent to sign a notice of appeal from a TPR order,
whether or not the parent is represented, and retains the requirement under current law that the parent's attorney sign the notice if the parent is represented.

21 SECTION 31. 809.107 (2) (bm) 6. of the statutes is created to read:

ASSEMBLY BILL 152SECTION 31

1 809.107 (2) (bm) 6. Notwithstanding s. 802.05 (1), if the appellant is the parent,
2 the parent's signature, and the parent's attorney of record's signature, if the parent
3 is represented.

NOTE: This SECTION requires a parent to sign a notice of intent to appeal a TPR order, whether or not the parent is represented, and retains the requirement under current law that the parent's attorney sign the notice if the parent is represented.

4 SECTION 32. 938.21 (5) (b) 3. of the statutes is amended to read:

5 938.21 (5) (b) 3. If the court finds that any of the circumstances specified in s.
6 938.355 (2d) (b) 1. to 4. applies with respect to a parent, a determination that the 7 county department or agency primarily responsible for providing services under the 8 custody order is not required to make reasonable efforts with respect to the parent
9 to make it possible for the juvenile to return safely to his or her home, unless the court
10 determines or has determined under a prior order that such efforts would be in the 11 best interests of the juvenile.

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that at a TPC hearing for a juvenile alleged to be in need of protection or services, a court must determine that an agency is not required to make reasonable efforts to return a juvenile safely home when the statutorily defined egregious circumstances are found to exist, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in the best interests of the juvenile.

12 SECTION 33. 938.32 (1) (c) 2. of the statutes is amended to read:

13 938.32 (1) (c) 2. If the court finds that any of the circumstances specified in s.
14 938.355 (2d) (b) 1. to 4. applies with respect to a parent, the consent decree shall 15 include a determination that the county department or agency primarily responsible 16 for providing services under the consent decree is not required to make reasonable
17 efforts with respect to the parent to make it possible for the juvenile to return safely
18 to his or her home, unless the court determines or has determined under a prior order 19 that such efforts would be in the best interests of the juvenile.

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that in a consent decree for a juvenile alleged to be in need of protection or services (JIPS) the juvenile court must determine that an agency is not required make reasonable efforts to return a juvenile safely home when the statutorily defined egregious circumstances are found to exist, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in the best interests of the juvenile.

1 SECTION 34. 938.355 (2) (b) 6r. of the statutes is amended to read:

2 938.355 (2) (b) 6r. If the court finds that any of the circumstances under sub.
3 (2d) (b) 1. to 4. applies with respect to a parent, a determination that the county
4 department or agency primarily responsible for providing services under the court
5 order is not required to make reasonable efforts with respect to the parent to make
6 it possible for the juvenile to return safely to his or her home, unless the court
7 determines or has determined under a prior order that such efforts would be in the
8 best interests of the juvenile.

NOTE: This SECTION requires the juvenile court to include in a JIPS dispositional order a determination that an agency is not required to make reasonable efforts to return a juvenile safely home when the statutorily defined egregious circumstances are found to exist, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in the best interests of the juvenile.

9 SECTION 35. 938.355 (2d) (b) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

10 938.355 (2d) (b) (intro.) ~~Notwithstanding sub. (2) (b) 6., the~~ The court is not
11 ~~required to~~ shall include in a dispositional order a ~~finding as to whether~~

15 from the home, ~~while assuring that the juvenile's health and safety are the~~ 16 ~~paramount concerns, or, if applicable, a finding as to whether the county department~~
17 ~~or agency has made reasonable efforts with respect to a parent of a juvenile~~ or to 18 achieve the permanency goal of returning the juvenile safely to his or her home,
19 unless the court determines or has determined under a prior order that such efforts
20 would be in the best interests of the juvenile, if the court finds any of the following:

NOTE: This SECTION requires the juvenile court to include in a JIPS dispositional order a determination that an agency is not required to make reasonable efforts to prevent a juvenile's removal or return a juvenile safely home when the statutorily defined egregious circumstances are found to exist, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in the best interests of the juvenile.

1 SECTION 36. 938.355 (2d) (c) of the statutes is renumbered 938.355 (2d) (c)
2 (intro.) and amended to read:

3 938.355 (2d) (c) (intro.) If the court finds that any of the circumstances under 4 par. (b) 1. to 4. applies with respect to a parent, the court shall ~~hold~~ do all of the 5 following:

6 2. Hold a hearing under s. 938.38 (4m) within 30 days after the date of that
7 finding to determine the permanency goal and, if applicable, any concurrent
8 permanency goals for the juvenile.

9 SECTION 37. 938.355 (2d) (c) 1. of the statutes is created to read:

10 938.355 (2d) (c) 1. Include in the order a determination that the person or 11 agency primarily responsible for providing services to the juvenile is not required to 12 make reasonable efforts with respect to the parent to make it possible for the juvenile

14 would be in the best interests of the juvenile.

NOTE: SECTIONS 36 and 37 require the juvenile court to include in a JIPS dispositional order a determination that an agency is not required to make reasonable efforts to return a juvenile safely home when the statutorily defined egregious circumstances are found to exist, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in the best interests of the juvenile.

15 SECTION 38. 938.357 (2v) (a) 3. of the statutes is amended to read:

16 938.357 (2v) (a) 3. If the court finds that any of the circumstances under s.
17 938.355 (2d) (b) 1. to 4. applies with respect to a parent, a determination that the
18 agency primarily responsible for providing services under the change in placement
19 order is not required to make reasonable efforts with respect to the parent to make
20 it possible for the juvenile to return safely to his or her home, unless the court

ASSEMBLY BILL 152

1 determines or has determined under a prior order that such efforts would be in the
2 best interests of the juvenile.

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that in a JIPS change-in-placement order the juvenile court must determine that an agency is not required to make reasonable efforts to return a juvenile safely home when the statutorily defined egregious circumstances are found to exist, unless the court determines that such efforts would be in the best interests of the juvenile.
