2013 SENATE BILL 143

April 17, 2013 - Introduced by Senators HANSEN, LEHMAN, HARRIS, VINEHOUT, WIRCH, LASSA, SHILLING, CARPENTER, MILLER, L. TAYLOR, RISSER, C. LARSON, T. CULLEN, ERPENBACH and JAUCH, cosponsored by Representatives SINICKI, KAHL, BARCA, BARNES, BERCEAU, BERNARD SCHABER, BEWLEY, BILLINGS, CLARK, DANOU, DOYLE, GENRICH, GOYKE, HEBL, HESSELBEIN, HINTZ, HULSEY, JOHNSON, JORGENSEN, KESSLER, KOLSTE, MASON, MILROY, OHNSTAD, PASCH, POPE, RICHARDS, RIEMER, RINGHAND, SARGENT, SHANKLAND, SMITH, C. TAYLOR, VRUWINK, WACHS, WRIGHT, YOUNG, ZAMARRIPA and ZEPNICK. Referred to Committee on Judiciary and Labor.

1 AN ACT to amend 111.39 (4) (d) and 814.04 (intro.); and to create 111.39 (5) (d),
2 111.397 and 893.995 of the statutes; relating to: authorizing the circuit court
3 to order a person who engages in discrimination in employment, unfair honesty
4 testing, or unfair genetic testing to pay compensatory and punitive damages.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under the current fair employment law, a person alleging discrimination in employment or unfair honesty or genetic testing may file a complaint with the Department of Workforce Development (DWD) seeking action that will effectuate the purpose of the fair employment law, including reinstating the employee, providing back pay, and paying costs and attorney fees. The fair employment law, however, does not authorize DWD to award compensatory or punitive damages to a complainant.

This bill permits DWD or a person who has been discriminated against or subjected to unfair honesty or genetic testing to bring an action in circuit court to recover compensatory and punitive damages caused by the act of discrimination or unfair honesty or genetic testing after the completion of all administrative proceedings before DWD and the Labor and Industry Review Commission concerning the violation. Those damages are in addition to any back pay or other amounts awarded in the administrative proceeding. The bill, however, does not permit an action for damages to be brought against any local governmental unit or against any employer employing fewer than 15 individuals.

SENATE BILL 143

Under the bill, if the circuit court finds that a defendant has committed an act of discrimination or unfair honesty or genetic testing, the circuit court must order the defendant to pay to the person discriminated against compensatory and punitive damages in an amount that the circuit court finds appropriate, subject to the following limitations:

1. If the defendant employs 100 or fewer employees, $50,000.
2. If the defendant employs more than 100 but fewer than 201 employees, $100,000.
3. If the defendant employs more than 200 but fewer than 501 employees, $200,000.
4. If the defendant employs more than 500 employees, $300,000.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

1 AN ACT to amend 111.39 (4) (d) and 814.04 (intro.); and to create 111.39 (5) (d),
2 111.397 and 893.995 of the statutes; relating to: authorizing the circuit court
3 to order a person who engages in discrimination in employment, unfair honesty
4 testing, or unfair genetic testing to pay compensatory and punitive damages.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under the current fair employment law, a person alleging discrimination in employment or unfair honesty or genetic testing may file a complaint with the Department of Workforce Development (DWD) seeking action that will effectuate the purpose of the fair employment law, including reinstating the employee, providing back pay, and paying costs and attorney fees. The fair employment law, however, does not authorize DWD to award compensatory or punitive damages to a complainant.

This bill permits DWD or a person who is alleged or was found to have been discriminated against or subjected to unfair honesty or genetic testing to bring an action in circuit court to recover compensatory and punitive damages caused by the act of discrimination or unfair honesty or genetic testing after the completion of all administrative proceedings before DWD and the Labor and Industry Review Commission concerning the violation. Those damages are in addition to any back pay or other amounts awarded in the administrative proceeding. The bill, however, does not permit an action for damages to be brought against any local governmental unit or against any employer employing fewer than 15 individuals.

BILL

Under the bill, if the circuit court finds that a defendant has committed an act of discrimination or unfair honesty or genetic testing, the circuit court must order the defendant to pay to the person discriminated against compensatory and punitive damages in an amount that the circuit court finds appropriate, subject to the following limitations:

1. If the defendant employs 100 or fewer employees, $50,000.
2. If the defendant employs more than 100 but fewer than 201 employees, $100,000.
3. If the defendant employs more than 200 but fewer than 501 employees, $200,000.
4. If the defendant employs more than 500 employees, $300,000.

The bill requires DWD to annually revise these amounts based upon the change in the consumer price index in the previous year, if any positive change has occurred.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. 111.39 (4) (d) of the statutes is amended to read:

8 is filed, the court shall consolidate the proceeding for judicial review and the action

I will be sharing the area of employment law this session with Gordon Malaise. As such, I have handled this redraft of 2013 SB 143. However, I made a number of modifications to last session's bill. Let me know if any of these changes is not desirable:

1. I advanced the date in the bill by two years to account for the new session.
2. I clarified that an action for compensatory and punitive damages could be brought regardless of whether the hearing examiner and the Labor and Industry Review Commission (LIRC) had both found that discrimination had occurred. The prior language suggested that an action for compensatory and punitive damages could only be brought if a hearing examiner had found discrimination and LIRC had affirmed that finding, which may not always be the case for cases in which there is ultimately a finding of discrimination. (In some cases, LIRC may be reversing or modifying a hearing examiner's decision, while in other cases, a court finding discrimination may be reversing LIRC's finding of no discrimination.) Let me know if these changes do not reflect the intent.

I also added a sentence to the analysis to reflect the fact that the dollar amounts are revised every year based on the change in the consumer price index.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

2015 BILL

1 Reger AN ACT to amend 111.39 (4) (d) and 814.04 (intro.); and to create 111.39 (5) (d),
2 111.397 and 893.995 of the statutes; relating to: authorizing the circuit court
3 to order a person who engages in discrimination in employment, unfair honesty
4 testing, or unfair genetic testing to pay compensatory and punitive damages.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under the current fair employment law, a person alleging discrimination in employment or unfair honesty or genetic testing may file a complaint with the Department of Workforce Development (DWD) seeking action that will effectuate the purpose of the fair employment law, including reinstating the employee, providing back pay, and paying costs and attorney fees. The fair employment law, however, does not authorize DWD to award compensatory or punitive damages to a complainant.

This bill permits DWD or a person who is alleged or was found to have been discriminated against or subjected to unfair honesty or genetic testing to bring an action in circuit court to recover compensatory and punitive damages caused by the act of discrimination or unfair honesty or genetic testing after the completion of all administrative proceedings before DWD and the Labor and Industry Review Commission concerning the violation. Those damages are in addition to any back pay or other amounts awarded in the administrative proceeding. The bill, however, does not permit an action for damages to be brought against any local governmental unit or against any employer employing fewer than 15 individuals.

BILL

Under the bill, if the circuit court finds that a defendant has committed an act of discrimination or unfair honesty or genetic testing, the circuit court must order the defendant to pay to the person discriminated against compensatory and punitive damages in an amount that the circuit court finds appropriate, subject to the following limitations:

1. If the defendant employs 100 or fewer employees, $50,000.
2. If the defendant employs more than 100 but fewer than 201 employees, $100,000.
3. If the defendant employs more than 200 but fewer than 501 employees, $200,000.
4. If the defendant employs more than 500 employees, $300,000.

The bill requires DWD to annually revise these amounts based upon the change in the consumer price index in the previous year, if any positive change has occurred.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
