PRELIMINARY DRAFT - NOT READY FOR INTRODUCTION

1 AN ACT ^{from} ...; relating to: reports of incidents between inmates and prison
2 employees and between inmates.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill provides that any incident between an employee or officer at a prison and an inmate or between an inmate and another inmate is open to public inspection, except that the warden or superintendent of the prison may redact any personally identifying information.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

3 SECTION 1. 302.389 of the statutes is created [✓] to read:

4 302.389 Incident reports. A report of an incident between an employee or
5 officer at a prison and an inmate or between an inmate and another inmate is open
6 to public inspection and copying under s. 19.35 (1), except that the warden or 7 superintendent of the prison may redact any personally identifying information of 8 the parties.
