Lis:

I left DOC 373 relating to discipline of juveniles in juvenile correctional facilities on your desk. The chapter doesn't say "solitary confinement" anywhere in so many words, but it does use terms like "close confinement," "modified confinement," and "room confinement," which if the juvenile is alone in those types of confinement would be solitary confinement, I guess.

Also, s. 302.40, stats., talks about solitary confinement in jails the same as s. 301.10 talks about solitary confinement in prisons.
