NATURAL RESOURCES

fees

Under current law, certain fees that DNR receives, including all of the fees that DNR receives from issuing wild ginseng licenses, are appropriated to DNR for the purposes of the endangered resources program. Under that program, DNR purchases and improves land or habitats for native endangered or threatened species, conducts the natural heritage inventory program, conducts wildlife and resource research, and provides for wildlife damage control or the payment of claims for damage associated with endangered or threatened species.

Under this bill, wild ginseng licenses are deposited in the conservation fund but are not appropriated to DNR for the purpose of the endangered resources program.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

✓ Under this draft, wild ginseng license fees are no longer credited to the appropriation under s. 20.370 (1) (fs) for the endangered resources program. Consequently, the fees will be deposited in the conservation fund and be available for appropriation ^{to} ~~by~~ DNR. You had indicated that you wanted the fees to be appropriated to DNR for the purpose of law enforcement. There is no appropriation from the conservation fund in current law from which funds are appropriated for general law enforcement purposes. Do you want the draft to create a new appropriation? If so, should the purpose of the appropriation be limited to a specific law enforcement objective? For example, should the draft create an appropriation for law enforcement activities related to the regulation of wild ginseng? Please give me a call if you would like to discuss this draft.
