Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

STATE GOVERNMENT

OTHER STATE GOVERNMENT

Under current law, the governor may award grants to support literacy improvement programs (literacy improvement grants) and grants to support literacy or early childhood development programs (literacy development grants) to persons other than school boards. This bill transfers the governor's authority to make literacy improvement grants and literacy development grants to DCF. Current law authorizes DPI to award literacy development grants to school boards. Under current law, the amount of each literacy improvement grant and each literacy development grant is determined jointly by the governor and DPI. Under the bill, the amount of each grant is determined jointly by DCF and DPI.

Under current law, the Read to Lead Development Council (council) is in the office of the governor. The council makes recommendations to the governor and DPI regarding recipients of literacy improvement grants and literacy development grants. This bill transfers the council from the office of the governor to DCF and replaces the governor with the secretary of DCF as the chairperson of the council.

Fern-

On the Read to Lead draft, LRB-0493/1 (BB0174) could you do a quick change to have appointments made to the Read to Lead Development Council under s. 14.017(5)(a) 5 be made by the Secretary of DCF rather than the Governor?

Thanks,

Under current law, the governor may award grants to support literacy improvement programs (literacy improvement grants) and grants to support literacy or early childhood development programs (literacy development grants) to persons other than school boards. This bill transfers the governor’s authority to make literacy improvement grants and literacy development grants to DCF. Current law authorizes DPI to award literacy development grants to school boards. Under current law, the amount of each literacy improvement grant and each literacy development grant is determined jointly by the governor and DPI. Under the bill, the amount of each grant is determined jointly by DCF and DPI.

Under current law, the Read to Lead Development Council (council) is in the office of the governor. The council makes recommendations to the governor and DPI regarding recipients of literacy improvement grants and literacy development grants. This bill transfers the council from the office of the governor to DCF and replaces the governor with the secretary of DCF as the chairperson of the council.
