Regarding the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance, I changed "commissioner" to "department" in some cases and to "secretary" in other cases. Please review to determine if you would like anything changed. Note the nonstatutory provisions that change certain terms to other terms in specified sections and chapters.

Except for changing "commissioner" to "department" or "secretary," I did not change subch. V of ch. 601, which relates to insurance hearings and enforcement procedures. Please review to determine if you want these provisions treated differently. For example, see s. 601.62 (1). Instead of the department taking some action or holding a hearing, do you want the division of hearing and appeals explicitly to act or hold the hearing? There are also many instances throughout the insurance chapters of hearings before the commissioner (new department) takes certain actions. For example, see ss. 612.22 (3) (a) and 619.01 (1) (a). Are these okay?
