Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

TAXATION

PROPERTY TAXATION

This bill provides that, beginning with the property tax assessments on January 1, 2017, counties will assess all property, other than manufacturing property, within their boundaries. A first or second class city that is conducting its own assessments as of January 1, 2015, may continue to do so, but if, in subsequent years, the city fails to assess property at its full value, the city becomes subject to the county or regional assessment unit assessment.
