1 20.901 (1) (b) Notwithstanding ss. 230.047 and 230.29, in the case of an 2 emergency which is the result of natural or human causes, state agencies may 3 cooperate to maintain required state services through the temporary interchange of 4 employees. The interchange of employees may be of 2 types: where an appointing 5 authority declares an emergency in writing to the governor; or where the governor 6 or his or her designee declares an emergency. If an appointing authority declares an 7 emergency, the interchange of employees is voluntary on the part of those employees
8 designated by the sending state agency as available for interchange. If the governor 9 or his or her designee declares an emergency, the governor may require a temporary 10 interchange of employees. An emergency which is declared by an appointing 11 authority may not exceed 72 hours unless an extension is approved by the governor 12 or his or her designee. An employee who is assigned temporary interchange duties 13 may be required to perform work which is not normally performed by the employee 14 or described in his or her position classification. An interchange employee shall be 15 paid at the rate of pay for the employee's permanent job unless otherwise authorized 16 by the ~~director of the office~~ administrator of the division of state employment
17 ~~relations~~ personnel management in the department of administration. State
