22 20.901 (1) (b) Notwithstanding ss. 230.047 and 230.29, in the case of an 23 emergency which is the result of natural or human causes, state agencies may

1 cooperate to maintain required state services through the temporary interchange of 2 employees. The interchange of employees may be of 2 types: where an appointing 3 authority declares an emergency in writing to the governor; or where the governor 4 or his or her designee declares an emergency. If an appointing authority declares an 5 emergency, the interchange of employees is voluntary on the part of those employees
6 designated by the sending state agency as available for interchange. If the governor 7 or his or her designee declares an emergency, the governor may require a temporary 8 interchange of employees. An emergency which is declared by an appointing 9 authority may not exceed 72 hours unless an extension is approved by the governor
10 or his or her designee. An employee who is assigned temporary interchange duties 11 may be required to perform work which is not normally performed by the employee 12 or described in his or her position classification. An interchange employee shall be 13 paid at the rate of pay for the employee's permanent job unless otherwise authorized 14 by the ~~director of the office~~ administrator of the division of state employment
15 relations personnel management in the department of administration. State 16 agencies receiving employees on interchanges shall keep appropriate records and
