8 registrar or of a local registrar and may not be copied or reproduced except as follows:

*NOTE: The instructions I received included adding the term "marriage" after the word "death." However, it appears there is also a reference to "marriage documents" in the existing text after "annulment." It is unclear to me whether both references are needed. I believe "marriage documents," as used elsewhere in the statutes, would include a certificate of marriage. Can you please confirm whether both references are needed?
