Erin from Rep Spiros's office

Unless a court has specifically ordered otherwise, adults have the right to receive personal mail, email and telephone calls from any other adult.

Office is hoping to avoid situation where caretaker is preventing family members & friends from being in contact w/ the visitee in the bpll.

Hi Tami,

I'm emailing with one last change on one of the amendments! For LRBa1893 (right to receive communication), we would like to have the following change made:

"(4) RIGHT TO COMMUNICATION. A resident has a right to receive and to refuse private and unrestricted communication including the right to receive or to refuse to receive personal mail and electronic communications from any adult and to have reasonable access to a telephone for receiving private communications from any adult person." person

per Erin by phone

We've had the chance to run all the amendments by our Senate lead, so once this amendment is changed, could you do the Senate companions for all 6 for Sen. Moulton's office?

Thanks!
