Fiscal Estimate Narratives

Description Battery and threats to a judge, a prosecutor, a public defender, or a law enforcement officer and providing a criminal penalty

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Under current law, no person may intentionally cause bodily harm to a law enforcement officer acting in an official capacity. Also under current law, no one may intentionally cause or threaten bodily harm to a judge or a member of judge's family.

Under this bill, a person who intentionally causes or threatens bodily harm to a judge, prosecutor, a public defender, or a law enforcement officer or a family member of any of those persons, is guilty of a felony if the person commits the offense in response to any action taken by those in their official capacity or while the official is acting in their official capacity.

Prosecutors believe that there could be some impact on their offices if this bill is enacted, but not significant enough to warrant additional prosecutors. Consequently, prosecutors do not anticipate a fiscal impact on their offices.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

District Attorneys do not expect there to be a long-range fiscal impact on their offices should this bill be enacted.
