

WISCONSIN LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL ACT MEMO

2015 Wisconsin Act 66
[2015 Senate Bill 126]

Exemption From Civil Liability for Certain Equine Activities

Under current law, a person is immune from civil liability for acts or omissions related to his or her participation in equine activities if a person participating in the equine activity is injured or killed as the result of an inherent risk of equine activities. Equine activity is defined by statute to mean various enumerated activities. 2015 Wisconsin Act 66 provides that equine-assisted learning and equine-assisted psychotherapy are equine activities for the purpose of civil liability immunity.
