

WISCONSIN LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL
ACT MEMO

2015 Wisconsin Act 136
[2015 Senate Bill 319]

Lawful Turns on a Red Signal

2015 WISCONSIN ACT 136

The Act provides that a vehicle in the left-most turn lane of a roadway that provides two right turn lanes may make a right turn on red into the lane that is the second to the rightmost lane, regardless of whether traffic lanes must be crossed. However, the Act provides that no such turn may be made if there is a sign at the intersection prohibiting the turn on a red signal.

Effective date: February 6, 2016

Prepared by: Steve McCarthy, Staff Attorney

February 5, 2016

SM:mcm;ty

This memo provides a brief description of the Act. For more detailed information, consult the text of the law and related legislative documents at the Legislature's Web site at: <http://www.legis.wisconsin.gov>.