2015 ASSEMBLY BILL 616

2015 Assembly Bill 616 makes two changes relating to collector trucks licensed as “special interest” vehicles under ch. 341, Stats. First, the bill clarifies that a 500-pound weight limit for hauling by nonmilitary trucks does not apply to the weight of a trailer or load drawn by a truck.

Second, under current law, a licensed special interest vehicle must not transport passengers for hire. The bill expands that prohibition to prohibit collector vehicles from transporting property for hire.

ASSEMBLY AMENDMENT 1

Assembly Amendment 1 changes references to “trucks” in provisions of current law and the bill relating to weight limitations for hauling. Specifically, it modifies those provisions to apply specifically to “motor trucks and truck tractors.”

BILL HISTORY

Representative Murtha offered Assembly Amendment 1 on January 13, 2016. On January 20, 2016, the Assembly Committee on State Affairs and Government Operations voted to recommend adoption of the amendment and passage of the bill, as amended, both on votes of Ayes, 14; Noes, 0.
