April 24, 2015 – Introduced by Representatives ROHRKASTE, KNODL, JAGLER, GANNON, A. OTT, MURPHY, R. BROOKS, KERKMAN, QUINN, T. LARSON, EDMING, MACCO, PETERSEN, KLEEFISCH, KAPENGA and KREMER, cosponsored by Senator OLSEN. Referred to Committee on Public Benefit Reform.

AN ACT to amend 108.04 (8) (a), 108.14 (8n) (e), 108.141 (7) (a) and 108.16 (6m) (a); and to create 20.445 (1) (ak), 20.445 (1) (aL), 108.04 (8) (b) and 108.133 of the statutes; relating to: requiring certain unemployment insurance claimants to submit to drug tests, eligibility for unemployment insurance benefits following a drug test, granting rule-making authority, and making an appropriation.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under federal law, a state may require a claimant to submit to a test for the unlawful use of controlled substances (drug test) as a condition of receiving unemployment insurance (UI) benefits if the claimant: 1) was terminated from employment with his or her most recent employer because of the unlawful use of controlled substances; or 2) is an individual for whom suitable work, as defined under a state’s UI law, is only available in an occupation that regularly conducts drug testing, as determined in regulations issued by the United States Secretary of Labor (federal regulations). As of April 20, 2015, final federal regulations have not been issued.

This bill requires the Department of Workforce Development (DWD) to establish a program to require claimants who apply for regular UI benefits to submit to drug tests. The bill requires DWD to determine, when a claimant applies for regular UI benefits, whether the claimant is an individual for whom suitable work is only available in an occupation described in the federal regulations. If DWD determines that the claimant is such an individual, DWD must conduct a screening on the claimant to determine whether there is a reasonable suspicion that the claimant has engaged in the unlawful use of controlled substances. If the screening indicates such a reasonable suspicion, DWD must require the claimant to submit to a drug test.

The bill provides that, if the claimant declines to submit to such a test, the claimant is ineligible for UI benefits for 52 weeks or until a subsequent claim for benefits, whichever is later. If the claimant submits to the drug test, but does not test positive for any controlled substance without a valid prescription, the claimant may receive UI benefits if otherwise eligible and may not be required to submit to any further drug test until a subsequent claim for benefits. If the claimant submits to the drug test and tests positive for one or more controlled substances without a valid prescription, the bill provides that the claimant is ineligible for UI benefits for 52 weeks or until a subsequent claim for benefits, whichever is later, except that following the positive test, the claimant may maintain his or her eligibility for UI benefits by enrolling in a state-sponsored substance abuse treatment program and undergoing a state-sponsored job skills assessment. The claimant remains eligible for benefits for each week the claimant is in full compliance with any requirements of the substance abuse treatment program and job skills assessment.

The bill also requires DWD to conduct, every ten years, a survey of employers to identify occupations for which employers require pre-employment, random, or reasonable suspicion drug testing as a condition of obtaining or continuing employment. The bill then requires DWD to promulgate rules identifying occupations for which more than 50 percent of employers so surveyed indicated that drug testing is required as a condition of obtaining or continuing employment, as well as additional rules identifying occupations in certain specified categories listed in the bill. The bill then requires that DWD likewise apply the above provisions related to screening, drug testing, substance abuse, and eligibility for benefits to claimants for whom suitable work is only available in an occupation identified by DWD in either set of rules.

In addition, the bill allows an employing unit to voluntarily submit to DWD the results of a drug test that was conducted on an individual as preemployment screening or notify DWD that an individual declined to submit to such a test. If the results of the test indicate that the individual has tested positive for one or more controlled substances without a valid prescription, or if the individual declined to submit to such a test, the bill provides that there is a presumption, rebuttable as provided in rules promulgated by DWD, that the claimant has failed to accept suitable work when offered. If the presumption is not rebutted, the claimant is ineligible for UI benefits as if the claimant had tested positive in or declined to submit to a drug test conducted by DWD, beginning with the week in which DWD receives the report.

The bill provides that if a claimant continues to receive benefits after testing positive for the unlawful use a controlled substance, the claimant's benefits are charged to the balancing account of the unemployment reserve fund, which is a pooled account financed by all employers that pay contributions and used to pay benefits that are not chargeable to any employer’s account.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

20.445 (1) (ak) Unemployment insurance administration; substance abuse treatment. Biennially, the amounts in the schedule to provide substance abuse treatment to claimants for unemployment insurance under s. 108.133 (2) (c).

SECTION 3. 20.445 (1) (aL) of the statutes is created to read:

20.445 (1) (aL) Unemployment insurance administration; controlled substances testing. Biennially, the amounts in the schedule to conduct testing for controlled substances and for related expenses under s. 108.133, other than providing substance abuse treatment under s. 108.133 (2) (c).

SECTION 4. 108.04 (8) (a) of the statutes is amended to read: 108.04 (8) (a) If Except as provided in par. (b), if an employee fails, without good cause, to accept suitable work when offered, the employee is ineligible to receive benefits until the employee earns wages after the week in which the failure occurs equal to at least 6 times the employee’s weekly benefit rate under s. 108.05 (1) in employment or other work covered by the unemployment insurance law of any state or the federal government. For purposes of requalification, the employee’s weekly benefit rate shall be that rate which would have been paid had the failure not occurred. This paragraph does not preclude an employee from establishing a benefit year during a period in which the employee is ineligible to receive benefits under this paragraph if the employee qualifies to establish a benefit year under s. 108.06 (2) (a).

The Except as provided in par. (b), the department shall charge to the fund’s balancing account any benefits otherwise chargeable to the account of an employer that is subject to the contribution requirements under ss. 108.17 and 108.18 whenever an employee of that employer fails, without good cause, to accept suitable work offered by that employer.

SECTION 5. 108.04 (8) (b) of the statutes is created to read: 108.04 (8) (b) There is a rebuttable presumption that an employee has failed, without good cause, to accept suitable work when offered if the employee declines to submit to a test for the presence of controlled substances in a test conducted on the employee as preemployment screening or the employee tests positive for one or more controlled substances in such a test without evidence of a valid prescription, as evidenced by a report submitted to the department by an employing unit in accordance with s. 108.133 (4). If the employee declines to submit to such a test, the employee shall be ineligible for benefits as if the employee had declined to submit to a test under s. 108.133 (3) (a), beginning with the week in which the department receives the report. If the employee tests positive in such a test without evidence of a valid prescription, the employee shall be ineligible for benefits as if the employee had tested positive under s. 108.133 (3) (c), beginning with the week in which the department receives the report, except as provided under s. 108.133 (3) (d). The department shall promulgate rules specifying how a claimant may overcome the presumption in this paragraph. The department shall charge to the fund’s balancing account any benefits otherwise chargeable to the account of an employer that is subject to the contribution requirements under ss. 108.17 and 108.18 whenever an employee of that employer fails, without good cause, to accept suitable work as described in this paragraph.

(2) (b) 5. to submit to a test for the presence of controlled substances submits to the test and does not test positive for any controlled substance or the claimant presents evidence satisfactory to the department that the claimant possesses a valid prescription for each controlled substance for which the claimant tests positive, the claimant may receive benefits under this chapter if otherwise eligible and may not be required to submit to any further test for the presence of controlled substances until a subsequent benefit year.

(c) If a claimant who is required under sub. (2) (b) 5. to submit to a test for the presence of controlled substances submits to the test and tests positive for one or more controlled substances without presenting evidence satisfactory to the department that the claimant possesses a valid prescription for each controlled substance for which the claimant tested positive, the claimant is ineligible for benefits under this chapter until 52 weeks after the date of the test or until the claimant qualifies for benefits in a subsequent benefit year, whichever occurs later, except as provided in par. (d).

the department the results of a test for the presence of controlled substances that was conducted on an individual as preemployment screening or notify the department that an individual declined to submit to such a test as a condition of employment, along with information necessary to identify the individual. Upon receipt of any such results of a test conducted and certified in a manner approved by the department or notification that an individual declined to submit to such a test, the department shall determine whether the individual is a claimant receiving benefits. If the individual the department is not required to provide evidence that promulgating a rule under this paragraph as an emergency rule is necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, safety, or welfare and is not required to provide a finding of emergency and compile the results of the survey required under section 108.133 (2) (e) of the
