AN ACT to create 16.61 (14) of the statutes; relating to: destroying public records and providing a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill provides that any person who arbitrarily and capriciously disposes of or destroys a public record prior to the date the record may be disposed of or destroyed as provided under the public records retention law may be required to forfeit not more than $1,000. The public records retention law prohibits public records of a state agency from being disposed of without the written approval of the Public Records Board and also allows the board to establish retention periods for records of counties, cities, towns, villages, and certain other local governments.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
