AN ACT to create 13.0995 of the statutes; relating to: requiring racial impact statements for bills that create a new crime, modify an existing crime, or modify the penalty for an existing crime.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill provides that any bill that creates a new crime, modifies an existing crime, or modifies the penalty for an existing crime must have a racial impact statement. The racial impact statement must be prepared by the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties (JRCCP). Under the bill, JRCCP may obtain the assistance of any agency in the executive branch of state government in preparing the racial impact statement.

The bill requires that a racial impact statement include an estimate of the number of criminal cases per year that the bill will affect, the impact of the bill on members of racial minority groups, the effect of the bill on the operations of correctional institutions, and any other matter JRCCP considers appropriate. In preparing the racial impact statement, JRCCP must also issue a finding as to whether the bill has a disparate impact on members of racial minority groups. The racial impact statement must be printed as an appendix to the bill and distributed in the same manner as amendments.

Under the bill, if JRCCP finds that a bill will have a disparate impact on members of racial minority groups, the author of the bill must either offer an amendment to the bill to reduce the disparate impact of the bill on members of racial minority groups or provide in writing his or her reasons for advancing the bill.
SENATE BILL 172

without amendment despite the disparate impact of the bill on members of racial minority groups.

Finally, under the bill, no house of the legislature may pass a bill that creates a new crime, modifies an existing crime, or modifies the penalty for an existing crime without a racial impact statement and without any applicable actions required of the bill’s author.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
