Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill allows a tribal college-county joint library to participate in a public library system. A tribal college-county joint library is established when a county board enters into a qualifying agreement with a tribal college to maintain a public library for the county. The agreement must require that the tribal college annually provide to the county library board an accounting of the expenditure of any appropriations received from the county and that, subject to certain reasonable regulations, the tribal college make the library free for the use of the inhabitants of the county. Also under this bill, a county with a tribal college-county joint library must have a three member library board, with members appointed by the tribal college, the American Indian tribe or band that controls the college, and the county board. The library board is responsible for any duties conferred upon it by the agreement, advising the library, and filing an annual report on the library’s finances and operations.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 43.01 (7) of the statutes is created to read:

43.01 (7) “Tribal college” means an accredited college, operated or controlled by a federally recognized American Indian tribe or band in this state, that meets the requirements of 25 USC 1804.

SECTION 2. 43.12 (8) of the statutes is created to read:

43.12 (8) For the purposes of this section, a county that provides library service solely under s. 43.57 (2m) is a county that maintains a consolidated public library, and a tribal college–county joint library under s. 43.57 (2m) is a branch of the consolidated library.

SECTION 3. 43.15 (4) (c) 1. of the statutes is amended to read:

of the municipality or county that established the member library. This subdivision does not prohibit a municipal, county, or joint public library from giving preference to its residents in library group programs held for children or adults if the library limits the number of persons who may participate in the group program, or from providing remote access to a library's online resources only to its residents.

SECTION 6. 43.57 (2m) of the statutes is created to read:

43.57 (2m) TRIBAL COLLEGE-COUNTY JOINT LIBRARIES. (a) A county board may

2. Except as provided in this subdivision, that the tribal college make the library free for the use of the inhabitants of the county. The tribal college may prescribe reasonable regulations for the use of the library so as to render the use of the library most beneficial to the greatest number of persons. The tribal college may exclude from the use of the library all persons who willfully violate the regulations.
