2015 SENATE RESOLUTION 4

March 17, 2015 - Introduced by Senators L. TAYLOR and HARRIS DODD. Referred to Committee on Senate Organization.

Relating to: commending Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Whereas, on January 13, 1913, on the campus of Howard University, a group of 22 women who were social justice advocates manifested the vision of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., and envisioned a world in which women could define, champion, and lead in the effort to address social issues of the day; and

Whereas, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., while participating in the monumental Woman Suffrage Parade of 1913 in Washington, D.C., fought and won its initial battle not to walk at the back of the march, the section that had been reserved for Negro supporters, and understood that the sorority would be called to fight for injustice on many fronts; and

Whereas, using its collective strength to promote academic excellence, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., gave rise to an expansive network of organizational chapters, in every corner of the country, touching the shores of many countries abroad, to further its mission of service; and
Whereas, in 1977, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., empowered 22 visionary women in Madison, Wisconsin, to use their skills to charter the Madison Alumnae Chapter in hopes of impacting the political, educational, and social aspects of the community. The Madison Alumnae Chapter has served Madison and Wisconsin residents for nearly 40 years; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the senate, That the members of the Wisconsin Senate, on the motion of Senator Lena C. Taylor, do commend the Madison Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., on the occasion of Delta Day at the capitol, honoring its rich past and working in faith and belief towards the future.
