To Representative Kremer:

This amendment conforms the language of 2017 Assembly Bill 311 to the terminology change for emergency medical services personnel enacted in 2017 Wisconsin Act 12. The terminology changes in Act 12 are as follows:

Before 2017 Wisconsin Act 12	After Act 12
First responder	Emergency medical responder ✓
Emergency medical technician (all levels collectively)	Emergency medical services practitioner ✓
Emergency medical technician ⊖ basic	Emergency medical technician ✓
Emergency medical technician ⊖ intermediate technician	Advanced emergency medical technician ✓
Emergency medical technician ⊖ intermediate	Emergency medical technician ⊖ intermediate (same) ✓
Emergency medical technician ⊖ paramedic	Paramedic ✓

To Representative Kremer:

This amendment conforms the language of 2017 Assembly Bill 311 to the terminology change for emergency medical services personnel enacted in 2017 Wisconsin Act 12. The terminology changes in Act 12 are as follows:

Before 2017 Wisconsin Act 12	After Act 12
First responder	Emergency medical responder
Emergency medical technician (all levels collectively)	Emergency medical services practitioner
Emergency medical technician—basic	Emergency medical technician
Emergency medical technician—intermediate technician	Advanced emergency medical technician
Emergency medical technician—intermediate	Emergency medical technician—intermediate (same)
Emergency medical technician—paramedic	Paramedic

This amendment itself does not make substantive changes to the bill, but only substitutes the new terminology in the created text in Assembly Bill 311.
