1 AN ACT ...; relating to: child labor permits.

Subject to certain exceptions, current law prohibits a minor from being employed or permitted to work at any employment unless the minor's employer obtains a written permit authorizing the employment of the minor. Subject to certain exceptions, current law also prohibits a minor from being permitted to work at any "street trade" unless 1) the minor's employer obtains a street trade permit; and 2) the minor obtains an identification card. Street trade permits must contain certain information but otherwise be in the same format as child labor permits. Such permits are issued by the Department of Workforce Development or by certain other permit officers designated by DWD. Under DWD's current rules relating to child labor permits, in order for a permit to be issued, a letter or signature must be presented from the minor's parent, guardian, or court-ordered foster parent consenting to the employment.

This substitute amendment codifies this letter or signature requirement. Also, if the minor has been adjudged in need of protection or services and is, by court order, under the supervision of the Department of Children and Families, the Department of Corrections, a county department of human services or social services, or a licensed child welfare agency (collectively, "agency"), the substitute amendment allows a letter or signature of an employee of that agency who provides services to

Subject to certain exceptions, current law prohibits a minor from being employed or permitted to work at any employment unless the minor's employer obtains a written permit authorizing the employment of the minor. Subject to certain exceptions, current law also prohibits a minor from being permitted to work at any "street trade" unless 1) the minor's employer obtains a street trade permit; and 2) the minor obtains an identification card. This substitute amendment codifies this letter or signature requirement. Also, if the minor has been adjudged in need of protection or services and is, by court order, under the supervision of the Department of Children and Families, the Department of Corrections, a county department of human services or social services, or a licensed child welfare agency (collectively, "agency"), the substitute amendment allows a letter or signature of an employee of that agency who provides services to the minor in lieu of the letter or signature of a parent, guardian, or court-ordered foster parent.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. 103.73 (1) (c) of the statutes is created to read:

2 103.73 (1) (c) One of the following:

3 1. A letter from the minor's parent, guardian, or court-ordered foster parent
4 consenting to the employment or a countersignature of the parent, guardian, or 5 foster parent on the employer's letter under par. (b).

6 2. If the minor has been adjudged to be in need of protection or services and is 7 under the supervision of the department of children and families, the department of 8 corrections, a county department under s. 46.22 or 46.23, or a child welfare agency
9 licensed under s. 48.60 pursuant to a court order under s. 48.345, 48.363, 48.365,
10 938.34, 938.363, or 938.365, a letter from an employee of that supervising agency
11 who provides services to that ^{a minor} child or a countersignature of such an employee on the 12 employer's letter under par. (b).
