PRELIMINARY DRAFT - NOT READY FOR INTRODUCTION

1 AN ACT to amend 961.443 (2) of the statutes; relating to: immunity from controlled substance
2 revocation of probation, parole, or extended supervision for certain offenses.
3 relating to possessing a controlled substance or a controlled substance analog.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law grants immunity from prosecution for possessing a controlled substance or controlled substance analog to a person (aider) who brings another person to an emergency room or other health facility, who summons police or emergency medical assistance, or who administers aid to another person because the aider believes the other person is suffering from an overdose or other adverse reaction to a controlled substance or a controlled substance analog.

This bill grants the same immunity to the aided person and also grants the aider and the aided person immunity from having their probation, parole, or extended supervision revoked under the circumstances that led the aider to summon or provide emergency assistance.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

4 SECTION 1. 961.443 (2) of the statutes, as affected by 2015 Wisconsin Act 264,
5 is amended to read:

1 Insert A

This bill grants immunity from having probation, parole, or extended supervision revoked for possessing a controlled substance or controlled substance analog to a person, called an aider, who summons or provides emergency medical assistance to another person because the aider believes the other person is suffering from an overdose or other adverse reaction to a controlled substance or a controlled substance analog. This bill also grants immunity from prosecution or from having probation, parole, or extended supervision revoked for possessing a controlled substance or controlled substance analog to the aided person in this circumstance.

This is an extension of current law, which grants immunity from prosecution for possessing a controlled substance or controlled substance analog to an aider who summons or provides emergency medical assistance to another person because the aider believes the other person is suffering from an overdose or other adverse reaction to a controlled substance or a controlled substance analog.
