Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill adds juvenile correctional officers to the list of professionals who must report suspected abuse and neglect of children. Under the bill, a juvenile correctional officer is a person whose principal job duty is the supervision of juveniles held in a juvenile detention facility, a juvenile correctional facility, or a secured residential care center for children and youth. A person who must report suspected child abuse and neglect must do so if he or she has reasonable cause to suspect that a child seen in the course of his or her professional duties has been abused or neglected or has reason to believe that a child seen in the course of his or her professional duties has been threatened with abuse or neglect and that abuse or neglect will occur. Mandated reporters are subject to criminal penalties if they fail to report.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
