Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Continuing education

This bill requires a physician, physician assistant, advanced practice nurse prescriber, podiatrist, dentist, or optometrist who is authorized to prescribe controlled substances, when renewing his or her license issued by the applicable credentialing board, to submit proof of completion of continuing education requirements promulgated by rule of the board regarding best practices in prescribing controlled substances.

Buprenorphine combination products; federal waivers

Under current federal law, the federal Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) registers health care practitioners to dispense controlled substances, and practitioners who dispense narcotic drugs to individuals for addiction treatment must additionally obtain a separate DEA registration for that purpose. However, qualifying health care practitioners may, subject to certain requirements and limitations, obtain a waiver from the requirement to obtain a separate DEA registration to dispense those drugs for addiction treatment. Health care practitioners eligible to obtain and practice under such a waiver include qualifying physicians and, until October 1, 2021, qualifying physician assistants and nurse practitioners. In order to qualify for a waiver, a nurse practitioner or physician assistant must be supervised by, or work in collaboration with, a qualifying physician, if the nurse practitioner or physician assistant is required by state law to act in collaboration with or under the supervision of a physician.

Under rules promulgated by the state Medical Examining Board, the practice of a physician assistant must be under the supervision of one or more physicians, and under rules promulgated by the state Board of Nursing, advanced practice nurse prescribers must work in a collaborative relationship with a physician.

This bill provides that, with respect to the ability of an advanced practice nurse prescriber or physician assistant to obtain and practice under a waiver, a physician who satisfies any of the criteria specified in federal law to be eligible to obtain a waiver is considered eligible to serve as a qualifying physician for purposes of the collaboration or supervision requirement under federal law, regardless of whether the physician himself or herself holds a waiver.

The bill prohibits the Department of Health Services from requiring prior authorization for or another limitation on prescribing and dispensing of buprenorphine combination products to a Medical Assistance recipient, who is not pregnant, by a health care provider who possesses a valid waiver, if the prior authorization or other limitation is not required under the federal law.

Substance abuse counseling

This bill makes the following changes regarding substance abuse counseling:

1. Allows marriage and family therapists and professional counselors to represent themselves to the public as substance abuse counselors, clinical supervisors, or prevention specialists without holding a certification for that purpose granted by the Department of Safety and Professional Services.

2. Requires DSPS to grant a certification as a substance abuse counselor, clinical supervisor, or prevention specialist to an individual who holds a similar unexpired certification granted by another state that has requirements for certification that are not lower than this state's certification requirements.

3. Requires the secretary of DSPS to appoint an advisory behavioral health review committee to semiannually review the requirements for obtaining certain substance abuse counseling certifications; for obtaining credentials granted by the Marriage and Family Therapy, Professional Counseling, and Social Work Examining Board; and for obtaining other credentials related to behavioral health. Under the bill, the advisory committee is required to accept public comments related to its review and may propose changes in statutes and administrative rules to DSPS.

4. Allows a person certified as a social worker, advanced practice social worker, or independent social worker, within the scope of his or her credential, to treat substance use disorder as a specialty. In order to treat substance use disorder as a specialty, current law requires a person holding one of those certifications to satisfy additional criteria related to education and amount of supervised practice, and to complete continuing education every two years, or to obtain a substance abuse counselor, clinical supervisor, or prevention specialist certification from DSPS.

5. Specifies the contents required in an application for certification as a substance abuse counselor, clinical substance abuse counselor, intermediate or independent clinical supervisor, prevention specialist, substance abuse counselor-in-training, clinical supervisor-in-training, or prevention specialist-in-training.

6. Adds various actions to the scope of unprofessional conduct for which DSPS may discipline a substance abuse counselor or other related professional.

7. Specifies the requirements that a person with an expired substance abuse counselor or other related certification must satisfy to renew or reinstate an expired, surrendered, or revoked certification.

8. Specifies the contents required in an application to be approved by DSPS to provide education that satisfies the educational requirements for a substance abuse counselor or other related certification.

9. Specifies the continuing education requirements that a substance abuse counselor, clinical substance abuse counselor, prevention specialist, or clinical supervisor is required to satisfy in order to renew his or her certification.

Drug abuse awareness and prevention instruction

This bill requires each school board to incorporate drug abuse awareness and prevention in its health instructional program. Current law requires school boards to provide instruction about the effects of controlled substances and alcohol on the human system, but a school board may not require a pupil to receive that instruction if the pupil's parent or guardian files a written objection. Current law also requires school boards to provide instruction to pupils on the relationship between highway safety and controlled substances and the relationship between youth suicide and controlled substances. This bill specifies that the references to controlled substances in these requirements include prescription drugs included in the Uniform Controlled Substances Act.

Graduate psychiatric nursing program grants

BI education

This bill requires DHS to award a grant in each fiscal year to an institution of higher education for its graduate program for students studying to be psychiatric mental health nurse practitioners. To receive a grant, the graduate program must commit to doing certain activities as specified in the bill.

Training resources for social services workers

This bill provides $50,000 of funding to the Department of Children and Families to develop and maintain online training resources for social services workers who deal with substance abuse-related cases.
