Description county authority relating to exploration for a type of industrial sand

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

The bill authorizes counties to issue licenses for the exploration of frac sand, and requires a licensee to notify the county before beginning drilling and before filling a drillhole. In addition, the bill requires the Department of Natural Resources to provide technical assistance related to frac sand exploration to a county upon request.

The bill would have minimal fiscal impact to the Department since it already provides technical assistance to counties, as needed, for frac sand exploration issues.

The local fiscal impact to counties is indeterminate and would vary from county to county depending upon the amount of exploration activity for frac sand.
