

WISCONSIN LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL ACT MEMO

2017 Wisconsin Act 96
[2017 Senate Bill 238]

First Responder and Emergency Medical Technician Training

2017 WISCONSIN ACT 96

2017 Wisconsin Act 96 permits the Department of Health Services (DHS) to pay certain aid toward emergency medical service practitioner and emergency medical responder training and examinations at all levels. The Act permits ambulance service providers who receive this aid from DHS to escrow unused aid from prior years and use it for such trainings and examinations in subsequent years.

Effective date: December 2, 2017

Prepared by: Dan Schmidt, Principal Analyst

December 4, 2017

DWS:mcm;ksm

This memo provides a brief description of the Act. For more detailed information, consult the text of the law and related legislative documents at the Legislature's Web site at: <http://www.legis.wisconsin.gov>.