2017 SENATE BILL 451

2017 Senate Bill 451 (“the bill”) prohibits the Department of Agriculture, Trade, and Consumer Protection (DATCP) from regulating the terms of sale or rental of equipment for soda water beverages, other than coin-operated vending machines.

SENATE AMENDMENT 1

Senate Amendment 1 extends the prohibition in the bill to also prohibit DATCP from regulating the provision of coin-operated soda water vending machines by wholesalers of soda water beverages to retail food establishments.

BILL HISTORY

On November 28, 2017, Senator Marklein offered Senate Amendment 1. On January 9, 2018, the Senate Committee on Government Operations, Technology and Consumer Protection unanimously recommended adoption of Senate Amendment 1. The committee then unanimously recommended passage of the bill, as amended.
