2017 ASSEMBLY BILL 397

June 19, 2017 – Introduced by Representatives SPIROS, BRANDTJEN, DUCHOW, KREMER and QUINN, cosponsored by Senator WANGGAARD. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

AN ACT to consolidate, renumber and amend 947.06 (1) and (2); and to create 947.06 (1m) (intro.) and (a) and 947.06 (6) of the statutes; relating to: going armed with a firearm while participating in a riot and providing a criminal penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill prohibits participating in a riot while going armed with a dangerous weapon, which includes a firearm. A person who violates the prohibition is guilty of a Class G felony. The bill defines a “riot” as a public disturbance that involves an act of violence, as part of an assembly of at least three persons, that constitutes a clear and present danger of property damage or personal injury or a threat of an act of violence, as part of an assembly of at least three persons having the ability of immediate execution of the threat, if the threatened action would constitute a clear and present danger of property damage or personal injury.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 947.06 (1) and (2) of the statutes are consolidated, renumbered 947.06 (2m) and amended to read:
947.06 (2m) Sheriffs, their undersheriffs and deputies, constables, marshals, and police officers have a duty to suppress unlawful assemblies within their jurisdiction. For that reason they may order all persons who are part of an assembly to disperse. An “unlawful assembly” is means an assembly which consists of 3 or more persons and which causes such a disturbance of public order that it is reasonable to believe that the assembly will cause injury to persons or damage to property unless it is immediately dispersed. (2) An “unlawful assembly” includes an assembly of persons who assemble for the purpose of blocking or obstructing the lawful use by any other person, or persons of any private or public thoroughfares, property or of any positions of access or exit to or from any private or public building, or dwelling place, or any portion thereof and which assembly does in fact so block or obstruct the lawful use by any other person, or persons of any such private or public thoroughfares, property or any position of access or exit to or from any private or public building, or dwelling place, or any portion thereof.

SECTION 2. 947.06 (1m) (intro.) and (a) of the statutes are created to read:

947.06 (1m) (intro.) In this section:

(a) “Riot” means a public disturbance involving at least one of the following:

1. An act of violence by one or more persons that are part of an assembly of at least 3 persons, that constitutes a clear and present danger of, or would result in, damage or injury to the property of any other person or to another person.

2. A threat of the commission of an act of violence by one or more persons that are part of an assembly of at least 3 persons having, individually or collectively, the ability of immediate execution of the threat, if the performance of the threatened act of violence would constitute a clear and present danger of, or would result in, damage or injury to the property of any other person or to another person.

SECTION 3. 947.06 (6) of the statutes is created to read:

947.06 (6) Whoever participates in a riot while knowingly going armed with a dangerous weapon is guilty of a Class G felony.
