7 persons and making appropriations.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill does the following: 1) makes changes to the requirements for claims for state compensation by wrongfully imprisoned persons; and 2) provides health care coverage and other assistance for such persons. Except as noted below, the bill initially applies with respect to claims filed by persons who are released on or after January 1, 1990, from imprisonment for crimes of which they claim to be innocent.

Requirements for claims. Currently, the state claims board is directed to hear petitions for compensation by persons who are released from imprisonment for crimes of which they claim to be innocent. The board must find either that the evidence is clear and convincing that the petitioner was innocent of the crime for which he or she was imprisoned or that the evidence is not clear and convincing that he or she was innocent. If the board finds that the petitioner was innocent and that he or she did not by his or her act or failure to act contribute to bring about the conviction and imprisonment for which he or she seeks compensation, the board must award the petitioner compensation not to exceed $25,000 total nor more than $5,000 for each year of imprisonment. This amount includes any expenses for attorney fees, costs, and disbursements incurred by the petitioner. Any award is paid from state general purpose revenues. If the board determines that it is not able to award an adequate compensation, the board must submit a report to the legislature specifying the amount that it considers to be adequate.

This bill provides that when the claims board receives a claim for wrongful imprisonment filed by a petitioner who has been released from imprisonment and who claims to be innocent of the crime for which he or she was imprisoned, the board must refer the petition to the Division of Hearings and Appeals in the Department of Administration. The bill then allows either DOA or the office of the prosecutor who prosecuted the petitioner to file a written request with the claims board for a hearing within 30 days after the original petition is filed with the board. If a timely request for a hearing is filed, or if the division concludes that it cannot determine the petitioner's eligibility for compensation without a hearing, the division must hold a hearing within 60 days after the petition is filed. If a timely request for a hearing is not filed and the division is able to determine that the petitioner is eligible for compensation without a hearing, the division must decide the matter without a hearing, except that the division must afford a petitioner an opportunity for a hearing before denying compensation to the petitioner. If a hearing is held, the bill allows the petitioner to be represented by a public defender. If a hearing is held, the division appoints a hearing examiner to hear the petition. If no hearing is held, the division decides the matter without a hearing.

The hearing examiner makes findings and issues a decision concerning whether the petitioner is entitled to compensation. Under the bill, the findings must be based upon the preponderance of evidence (a lesser evidentiary standard than clear and convincing evidence). The petitioner need not show that he or she did not by his or her act or failure to act contribute to bring about the conviction and imprisonment for which he or she seeks compensation.

If the hearing examiner's finding is in the affirmative, the examiner must transmit its findings to the claims board, which shall award compensation to the petitioner in an amount that the board considers to be adequate and the board must pay that amount to the petitioner. Under the bill, the amount of compensation is fixed at a rate of $50,000 per year, prorated daily, with a $1,000,000 limit on the total amount of an award. In addition, subject to the $1,000,000 limit, each award must include reimbursement for reasonable, actual attorney fees, together with all costs and disbursements incurred by the petitioner in his or her defense, postconviction, and compensation proceedings and all fees, surcharges, and restitution paid by the petitioner as a result of his or her arrest and imprisonment. The $50,000 annual rate is subject to annual adjustments based on changes in the cost of living. The bill requires the board to make, every five years, a recommendation to the legislature as to whether the $1,000,000 limit should be changed.

ASSEMBLY BILL 548

The bill provides that no person may file a claim for wrongful imprisonment, or be paid an award for wrongful imprisonment, as a result of a conviction resulting in imprisonment for a crime if the imprisoned person is also imprisoned for a conviction for a felony arising from the same course of conduct that resulted in conviction for the crime of which the person claims to be innocent if the person does not claim to be innocent of that felony or if the imprisoned person is convicted of a violent crime, specified in this bill, after his or her release from imprisonment.

The bill also provides that, with certain exceptions, a surviving spouse or domestic partner, child, parent, or sibling of a person who is entitled to compensation for wrongful imprisonment but who does not receive payment of an award may, within one year of the death of that person, file or pursue on behalf of the deceased person a claim for wrongful imprisonment. Under the bill, any payment that would have been payable to the deceased person then becomes payable to the individual who files or pursues the claim, except that if that person is entitled only under the law governing inheritances to inherit a portion of the estate of a deceased person, the individual may receive only the same portion of the payment. Any compensation is independent of any rights that a claimant or any other person may have to inherit assets under any will of the decedent.

The bill also creates requirements that apply if a person who petitions for compensation obtains any settlement, judgment, or award against a third party in a federal or state action for damages related to wrongful imprisonment for the crime that is the subject of the petition. If a person obtains such a settlement, judgment, or award in such an action before the claims board pays a claim, the claims board must subtract the amount of the judgment, settlement, or award from the compensation. The bill also provides that for any petition filed on or after the effective date of the bill, the petitioner automatically assigns to the claims board the petitioner's right to any settlement, judgment, or award obtained against a third party in such an action. The bill specifies that the assignment is a condition of eligibility to receive compensation from the claims board. Also, the assignment is considered to be a statutory lien on the settlement, judgment, or award. The amount of the lien is equal to the amount of the settlement, judgment, or award, or the amount of compensation awarded by the claims board, whichever is less.

The bill also provides that if a person who is awarded compensation owes money for outstanding restitution, court fees, and fines (collectively deductions) related to any conviction that remains in place and is not subject to a finding of innocence, the claims board must withhold and deduct from the compensation award any such money that is owed. The bill requires the prosecutor of such convictions to provide the claims board with an accounting of all unpaid deductions, and the claims board must distribute the deductions to the person to whom they are owed.

This bill also extends the statute of limitations for a civil claim for damages brought by a person who was injured because of an intentional tort that resulted in an earlier criminal conviction of the person who has received compensation for wrongful imprisonment for a later crime. Under current law, an injured person must bring a claim for damages due to an intentional tort within three years after the cause of action accrues or be barred. Under the bill, an injured person may bring a claim within three years, or within one year after a defendant receives compensation for wrongful imprisonment, whichever is later. If the injured person brings his or her claim more than three years after the cause of action accrues but within one year after the defendant receives compensation for wrongful imprisonment, the damages awarded due to the tort may not exceed 50 percent of the total compensation received for wrongful imprisonment.

In addition, the bill exempts from taxation the payments that an individual, or his or her estate, receives from the claims board or from the state legislature as a result of claims board action, or from the state as payment for the individual's health insurance premiums.

Health care coverage and other assistance. Under current law, the Group Insurance Board, attached to the Department of Employee Trust Funds, contracts on behalf of the state for the purpose of providing health care coverage to state employees. This bill permits individuals who receive compensation from the state for wrongful imprisonment and who are not eligible to obtain health care coverage from an employer to elect, for up to five years, health care coverage under plans offered by the Group Insurance Board to state employees beginning on January 1, 2019. Under the bill, these individuals would be required to pay the same health insurance premium amounts that state employees are required to pay, with the balance of the premium cost paid by the state. During the time before January 1, 2019, this bill makes these individuals eligible for health care benefits through the Medical Assistance program BadgerCare Plus, if the federal government does not disapprove of the Department of Health Services providing Medical Assistance to these individuals.

Under the bill, if a person's conviction for a crime is reversed, set aside, or vacated on grounds consistent with the person's innocence, and the person is ordered released from prison by a trial court, the court must grant the person, upon request, temporary financial assistance, transition assistance from the Department of Corrections and local aid agencies, and sealing of all records related to his or her conviction. If the person pursues a successful petition for wrongful imprisonment, any temporary financial assistance he or she received upon release from prison is subtracted from any compensation he or she receives for wrongful imprisonment.

Because this bill relates to an exemption from state or local taxes, it may be referred to the Joint Survey Committee on Tax Exemptions for a report to be printed as an appendix to the bill.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

11 (c) Paragraph (a) does not apply to a person who is convicted of a violent crime
12 specified in s. 939.632 (1) (e) 1. or 2. after his or her release from imprisonment. A

3 under sub. (4) but has not been paid, any such individual or individuals may, within 4 one year of the death of the person, file a claim with the claims board for 5 compensation to be awarded on the decedent's behalf in whatever share of the

19 office of the prosecutor who was responsible for prosecuting the petitioner may file
20 a written request with the claims board for an evidentiary hearing on the petition.
21 The department of administration shall refer the request to the division within 5
22 days after the claims board receives the request. If a timely request for a hearing is 23 filed, or if the division concludes that it cannot determine the petitioner's eligibility
24 for compensation without a hearing, the division shall hold a hearing on the petition
25 no later than 60 days after the petition is filed. If no request for a hearing is filed

ASSEMBLY BILL 548SECTION 12

1 within the time specified in this subsection, and the division is able to determine that
2 the petitioner is eligible for compensation without a hearing, the division shall decide
3 the matter without a hearing, except that the division shall not deny a petition for 4 compensation without affording the petitioner an opportunity for a hearing. The 5 division shall find either that the preponderance of evidence is clear and convincing
6 demonstrates that the petitioner was innocent of the crime for which he or she 7 suffered imprisonment, or that the preponderance of evidence is not clear and 8 convincing does not demonstrate that he or she was innocent.

9 (4) If the ~~claims board~~ division of hearings and appeals finds that the 10 preponderance of evidence demonstrates that the petitioner was innocent and that 11 he or she did not by his or her act or failure to act contribute to bring about the 12 conviction and imprisonment for which he or she seeks compensation, the claims
13 board of the crime for which he or she was imprisoned, the division shall transmit
14 its findings to the claims board. The claims board shall find the amount which will 15 equitably compensate the petitioner, not to exceed $25,000 and at a rate of 16 compensation not greater than $5,000 of $50,000, or the amount determined under 17 sub. (4m) (a), whichever applies, per year, prorated daily, for the imprisonment.
18 Compensation awarded by the claims board In addition, the claims board shall 19 include find any amount to which the board finds the petitioner is entitled for 20 reasonable, actual attorney fees, together with all costs and disbursements incurred
21 by the petitioner in his or her defense, postconviction, and compensation proceedings
22 and all fees, surcharges, and restitution paid by the petitioner as a result of his or 23 her arrest and imprisonment. The claims board shall subtract any moneys received 24 by the petitioner under s. 808.085. If the claims board finds that the amount it is able 25 to award find is not an adequate compensation it shall submit a report specifying an

ASSEMBLY BILL 548

1 amount which it considers adequate to the chief clerk of each house of the legislature,
2 for distribution to the legislature under s. 13.172 (2). The claims board shall, subject
3 to sub. (4g), award the compensation specified in the decision and order
4 disbursement, pursuant to sub. (4d), of the award to the petitioner or any other
5 individual who is entitled to receive a payment from the appropriation under s.
6 20.505 (4) (d), except that the total amount of the award may not exceed $1,000,000.

7 SECTION 13. 775.05 (4c) of the statutes is created to read:

14 775.05 (4d) The claims board may award the compensation specified in the 15 decision under sub. (4) in an annuity payable over an amount of time determined by 16 the claims board, but not to exceed the time the petitioner was imprisoned.

17 SECTION 15. 775.05 (4g) and (4h) of the statutes are created to read:

18 775.05 (4g) (a) As a condition of eligibility for compensation under sub. (4), a 19 petitioner shall automatically assign to the claims board his or her right to any 20 settlement, judgment, or award that may be obtained against any 3rd party in any
21 federal or state action for damages related to wrongful imprisonment for the crime
22 specified in sub. (2) (a). The petition shall, in itself, constitute an assignment by 23 operation of law. The assignment shall be considered a statutory lien on any 24 settlement, judgment, or award received by the petitioner from a 3rd party in an

ASSEMBLY BILL 548

1 amount equal to the amount of the settlement, judgment, or award, or the amount
2 of compensation awarded under sub. (4), whichever is less.

3 (b) If a petitioner obtains, before the claims board awards compensation under
4 sub. (4), a final judgment, settlement, or award for damages in a federal or state
5 action related to wrongful imprisonment for the crime specified in sub. (2) (a), the

9 before the award is disbursed, the claims board shall determine the amount owed,
10 if any, by the petitioner for any outstanding restitution, court fees, and fines related 11 to any convictions that remain in place and that are not the subject of a finding of 12 innocence under this section. The prosecutor of such convictions is responsible for 13 providing the claims board with an accounting of all unpaid restitution, court fees,
14 and fines. The claims board shall deduct and withhold from the compensation award 15 any money owed, based on the accounting, before disbursing the compensation, and 16 shall distribute the money withheld to the person to whom it is owed.

17 SECTION 16. 775.05 (4m) and (4r) of the statutes are created to read:

22 December 31. The board shall publish the adjusted amount so determined in the 23 Wisconsin Administrative Register.

ASSEMBLY BILL 548

1 (b) On January 1, 2022, and once every 5 years thereafter, the claims board
2 shall make a recommendation to the legislature as to whether the dollar amount of 3 the maximum award under sub. (4) should be changed.

4 (4r) At any hearing conducted under this section, the petitioner may be

17 to release plan.

18 (b) A financial assistance award not to exceed 133 percent of the federal poverty
19 level for up to 14 months, or while proceedings under s. 775.05 are pending,
20 whichever is shorter.

22 shall be available to the person. Records on the consolidated court automation
23 program case management system shall be sealed and inaccessible by the public.
24 Other records sealed under this section may not be made available for public

2 interest is greater than the harm to the public interest that may result from access
3 to those records.

4 (2) The court shall, within 10 days after it receives the petition under sub. (1),
5 grant the relief sought if the person's criminal conviction was reversed, set aside, or
