2017 SENATE BILL 39

February 15, 2017 - Introduced by Senators OLSEN, KAPENGA and MOULTON, cosponsored by Representatives KULP, BALLWEG, BERNIER, FIELDS, JACQUE, KESSLER, KREMER, QUINN, RIPP, SINICKI, STEFFEN and TITTL. Referred to Committee on Insurance, Housing and Trade.

AN ACT to renumber and amend 344.16 (1); to amend 344.14 (2) (d) and 344.16 (2); and to create 344.16 (1) (a) and (b), 344.16 (2m) and 344.63 (1) (cm) of the statutes; relating to: self-insurance by religious sects for purposes of motor vehicle financial responsibility and liability insurance requirements.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under this bill, the Department of Transportation may issue a certificate of self-insurance to a religious sect that meets specified requirements.

Under current law, subject to certain exceptions, a person may not operate a motor vehicle in this state unless the owner or operator of the vehicle has in effect a motor vehicle liability insurance policy for the vehicle providing coverage in specified minimum liability limits. However, there is an exception for a motor vehicle owned by a self-insurer possessing a certificate of self-insurance issued by DOT.

Also under current law, if a motor vehicle accident results in injury, death, or property damage of $1,000 or more, DOT is required to notify the operator and the owner of the vehicle that the person must deposit with DOT security for the accident in an amount sufficient to satisfy any resulting judgment for damages. If DOT receives a copy of a judgment for damages of $500 or more arising out of a motor vehicle accident, the person against whom the judgment was rendered is required to provide proof of financial responsibility. In both situations, proof of financial responsibility includes coverage under a motor vehicle liability insurance policy with specified minimum liability limits. In lieu of a motor vehicle liability insurance... policy, a person may show that the person is a self-insurer possessing a certificate of self-insurance issued by DOT.

Under this bill, upon application, DOT may issue a certificate of self-insurance to a religious sect the members of which have a history of mutual financial assistance and have collectively registered with DOT more than 25 vehicles. If DOT issues a certificate of self-insurance to a religious sect, the certificate of self-insurance may be used in lieu of motor vehicle liability insurance by members of the religious sect to satisfy proof of financial responsibility and mandatory motor vehicle liability insurance requirements.
