AN ACT to amend 943.10 (1m) (intro.) of the statutes; relating to: entering certain places with intent to commit battery and providing a criminal penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, it is a Class F felony to enter a dwelling or certain other places with intent to steal or commit a felony therein. Under the bill, it is a Class F felony to enter one of those places with the intent to commit battery, regardless of whether the battery was a misdemeanor or felony battery.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 943.10 (1m) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

943.10 (1m) (intro.) Whoever intentionally enters any of the following places without the consent of the person in lawful possession and with intent to steal or commit a felony or a violation of s. 940.19 (1) or 940.195 (1) in such place is guilty of a Class F felony:
